

TURKEYS

"Turkeys, Turkeys, and more Turkeys"—the sight of turkeys brings the thoughts of Thanksgiving to our minds because the Pilgrims made the turkey somewhat of a symbol of Thanksgiving.

The flock of birds featured here are a small number of the many turkeys raised annually on the Henry Carrier farm, here in Transylvania county. Ecusta buys quite a few turkeys from this farm for the many different occasions held here during the year. As is customary, Ecustans who are on duty at the mill on Thanksgiving Day will again be given a turkey dinner and all the trimmings. Eat hearty, it's on the company.
