The Mills Ride The Hills

Jim Mills bought his first motorcycle in the Spring of 1935, just after his marriage. He became such an ardent fan that his wife started riding "double" with him, and now has a machine of her own. They have made a hobby of riding.

They have made many trips together, the longest being a vacation trip in 1947 to Miami, Florida. On this trip they rode double and visited many towns in Georgia and Florida.

In 1941 Jim made a solo trip through eleven states, covering about 1600 miles. The unique feature of this trip was the economical aspect—gas cost, $7.06.

Jim says that he has had many spills since he started riding, and he knocks on wood when
