ON THE COVER

At one time or another the American flag has been flown in all parts of the world. Wherever it was flown it has been an inspiration to all who have seen it—a symbol of freedom to a peace-loving and God-fearing people. On the cover is the flag that we have loved and respected for almost a decade, flying in front of the Main Office. It has been an inspiration to us and a reminder that we are living in a free country, blessed with the four freedoms—freedom of speech and expression, freedom to worship God in our own way, freedom from want, and freedom from fear.
