

INSPECTION NEWS

By Raleigh Waldrop

It seems there has been lots of new homes built and remodeling of present homes. Frantz Bishop has recently moved into his new home on Carolina Avenue in Brevard. Oscar Lothery has moved into his new home on Turnpike Road. Tom Brotherton spent his vacation remodeling his home, and "Farmer" Hutchins is still in the process of remodeling his home. Good going, Boys!

Gordon Whitmire still holds the record in trading, he spent his vacation peddling peaches. Good peaches? Just ask Rastus Smith or Kenneth McDaris. Earl Galloway has been trading cars—he now owns a Pontiac Sedan.

Ask Jim Sheppard who catches the fish in his family, the latest report his wife landed an 18-inch bass at Fontana Dam.

Inspection can be proud of the boys who played in the all-star game in Asheville. They were Roy Head, Rusty Carland, and David Sams.

Our sympathy goes to Howard Lawing whose aunt, Mrs. Nannie McClure passed away August 9. "Vick" Sigmon has had his share of troubles this month, he had five stitches taken in his hand and his wife was in Transylvania for treatment the 7th and 8th of August and is now improved and back at work.

Barbara Jean Wilkie, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wilkie, had her tonsils removed at Aston Park Hospital.

We are sorry to hear of the illness of Thurman King's father. He was called to Austell, Georgia, August 9th, to be with his father who suffered a heart attack.

Those enjoying vacations this month are: T. Earl Hall, John Hollis, Ray Hooper, Ned Medford, Claude Glazener, Oscar Lothery, Kenneth McDaris, James Sheppard, Raleigh Waldrop, Holland Corn, Elvin S. Nicholson, Leon Scruggs, Harry Scruggs, Earl G. Garren, Ben H. Bishop, Burlas C. Ashe, John Price, Mary Shytle, Kenneth Sentelle, Josephus Norman, Clyde G. Crowder, Tom V. McCall, Stella Seay, Russell Mason, Orville Long, Coleman Scott, and Preston McCrary.

CHAMPAGNE MACHINE SHOP NEWS

By James R. Poteet

On Friday evening, August 12th, the fellows from the shop gave a fried chicken dinner in the Pisgah National Forest. Everyone seemed to have enjoyed the party to the fullest extent, and we are very sorry that some of the fellows were unable to attend. Those who didn't make it really missed a treat—a good meal and a good time. Those present were: Doyle Moss, Ector Capps, Joe Perry, R. B. Shealy, Ed Wilson, Alfred Cheek, D. C. Landreth (the principal speaker of the occasion) and yours truly. Walter Straus and photographer Dick Landeck were also with us.

The younger children cannot reach the water fountain at Camp Sapphire, so they devised a means of getting a drink when they are thirsty. They stand on the porch of the Recreation Building and turn the spigot on, then proceed to quench their thirst. Here it looks as if two are trying to get a drink at the same time. The two young ladies are Anne (left), 4 years old, and Katherine, age 14 months, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dreyer. The lad in the center, who turned the water on, is Randy Alexander, 2 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Alexander.

ENDLESS SCOOP

By Edna Mae McCrary

With vacation time in full swing, some of the girls are going places and others just enjoying a nice rest at home. Edna Batson has just returned from a visit with her brother and friends in Detroit. Mary Price enjoyed a trip to Washington, D. C., and Johnnie Stepp spent a week visiting her sister in Fayetteville. Frances Orr seems to have haunted the lakeside quite a lot while on vacation. Ruth McCall has spent some time in Asheville visiting her brother who is ill. Mildred Batson used some of her vacation canning vegetables as she looks ahead to the winter months and Jack Davies' vacation included a trip to Coney Island.

Mary Sue Thorne went to Athens, Georgia a
