

VFW HOME

held open house, with the Auxiliary serving refreshments. The top floor is one large assembly and recreation room, and the bottom floor contains the game room and the lounge.

The Hedrick-Rhodes Post is the largest in North Carolina, having over 800 members, many of whom are Ecusta employees.
