

Above, cross section of seed-flax stem.

Below, Fred Fendley is shown making notes on some young seed-flax plants of the winter crop in the greenhouse. Fred takes care of field and greenhouse planting and harvesting, and assists in taking field notes. These young plants are selections from our hybrids.

