BOWLING

Sport of men, women, kings. Trying for those elusive pins; Looks so easy at first glance Here's a pointer, watch that stance. Easy stride, or lots of stuff, It's up to you, the pins don't bluff; Ease it down, or really sock itThe ideal spot the head pin pocket. Throw it straight, curved, or hooked Doesn't matter, we all get rooked. Don't get sore and quit the gameIt happens to others-just the same. Stick it out-try once more What's the use of getting sore. Get a double, get a turkey, Don't get tense, scared or jerky Get a run, then blow a spare Hear that kidding - is it fair? Though luck ran good or luck ran bad Remember all the fun we had.

ON THE BRIGHTER SIDE

Maybe every American isn't a Millionaire, but as a people we are pretty well off. Just consider these facts about U. S. families which was reported recently by the Federal Reserve Board.

More than half ( $51 \%$ ) of all the families own one or more automobiles. Nearly half own their own homes or farms. Nearly one in six owns other real estate. Three out of four families ( $77 \%$ ) hold life insurance policies. Seven out of ten ( $71 \%$ ) have bank accounts or Government Savings Bonds. One in 11 owns a business or has an interest in one, not counting those who own stock in corporations. More than ne in 13 owns stock.

HYPERTENSION

Psychologist have a formula for those who wish to live longer and enjoy life more fully. The objective is to cultivate calmness and self-possession. The following precepts were published recently in the Masonic News of Montreal, Canada:

Learn to like what doesn't cost much.
Learn to like reading, conversation and music.
Learn to like plain food, plain service, plain cooking.

Learn to like fields, trees, woods, brooks, fishing, rowing and hiking.

Learn to like people, even though some of them may be as different from you as a Chinese.

Learn to like to work, and enjoy the satisfaction of doing your job as well as it can be done.

Bill: "What's eating you?"
Bob: "Oh, nothing much, but when your girl said that she would dig up a date for mebrother, she wasn't kidding.'
