SOUTHERN BELLE

Nancy Clarke, 18 year old daughter of Harry Clarke of the Maintenance Department, has recently gained national recognition. A photograph of Nancy, reproduced in color, appeared in "This Week" on Sunday, April 23rd. This publication is printed in magazine form and is included in most of the leading newspapers in the United States. The caption under the photograph was: "Southern Belle Nancy Clarke was photographed by Lawrence Willinger in her home town of Brevard, N. C., in the Blue Ridge Mountains. She's 18, blond and has a thick 'you-all' accent. A straight-A student in high school, Nancy is an expert archer and swimmer, too."

During her four years at Brevard High, Nancy has better than a 96 average. She has been a member of the Beta Club, an honorary scholastic society, and this year is Salutatorian of the Senior Class. She is office assistant in the Principal's office, a member of the Dramatic Club, and Asst. Literary Editor of the school annual.

Our heartiest congratulations to Nancy, and best wishes for a bright and promising future.
