

The staff of the Band and Choral School. Left to right: Lorraine Parris, Joseph Gans, John Eversman, Lucille Heffner, Earl Martin and Charlie Glass.

in the Choral School.

Forty-eight members of the Ecusta Band and eighty-five students of the Choral School received certificates at ceremonies in the gymnasium at Camp Sapphire on July 7th. This is the largest group to attend the camp and school in its three years of operation. The certificates were presented by Harry H. Straus, Jr.

During the one month period a staff of six members gave instructions in solo, sight reading, harmony and theory, and classes were held in group and sectional singing. The instructors were: John D. Eversman, Lucille Heffner and Charles Glass of the Recreation Department; Lorraine Parris, Director of Music in the City Schools of Newberry, South Carolina and neice of J. I. Gaylor of the Finishing Department; Col. E. B. Gans, Head of Mathematics Department at Hendersonville High School; and Earl H. Martin, Band Director of Hendersonville High School.

Each year the company sponsors this Band Camp and Choral School for one month during the summer vacation. Instruments and instructions are furnished free of charge to the students.

This year Margaret Ann DeBord, daughter of Horace DeBord of the Maintenance Department, and Mildred Fuller, daughter of John Fuller of the Engineering Office, graduated from the band. After graduating from High School, members are no longer eligible for the band.

Left to right: Nancy Lader of Brevard; Margaret Ann DeBord, Patsy Duckworth, daughter of Joe Duckworth of the Cafeteria; and Ronnie Keller, son of Paul Keller of the Analytical Lab.