

Above: Another view of the tank storage and steel sorting area. Tanks in right foreground are carbon bisulphide storage tanks.

Below, left: View of the concrete foundation of the PX Storage building. This is a separate storage building located between the factory building and Vanderbilt Road.

Below, right: Steel frame work of the Chemical and Viscose Ripening Room areas shows the rapid rate of progress. Tapered frame in background is for the exhaust stack from the casting machines.

