

ARCHERY

A great deal of improvement has been seen in the local archers this year. O. K. Smathers, 1949 North Carolina State Champion, has been giving free instructions at Camp Sapphire on Thursdays and Saturdays during the Summer.

This year Jack Edwards, son of Dewey Edwards of the Storeroom, placed second in the Junior Division of the Olympic Bowman League's International Tournament. O. K. Placed 40th in the Class A Men's division of the same tournament, and won the Southeastern Championship. The Southeastern division consists of 13 states.

Despite the fact that many classes were interrupted by rain, the ladies and the children have shown much interest and improvement. O. K. urges all who are interested to come out and try their luck at hitting the bull's eye.
