

ECUSTA NIGHT

Thursday night, October 12, was Ecusta night at the joint meeting of the Southern and Southeastern Divisions of the American Pulp and Paper Mill Superintendents Association at the Asheville Civic Auditorium. Approximately 300 members and guests were on hand for the occasion.

Lee M. Bauer was Toastmaster, being introduced by R. C. Bullock, Chairman of the Southeastern Division. Harry H. Straus, Jr., delivered the address of welcome.

Appearing on the entertainment program were the Visionettes, "Smiling Red" Roper, the Ecusta String Band and the Ecusta Square Dance Team. A square dance followed this program with everyone participating.

J. O. Wells spoke at the morning session of the convention on Friday.

Harry H. Straus, Jr., makes address of welcome.

Three Past Presidents of the American Pulp and Paper Mill Superintendents Assn. L. to R.: Raymond Barton, Michigan Paper Co., Raymond F. Bennett, and F. Le Roy Zellers, Chillicothe Paper Co.

R. C. "Slim" Bullock presided over meeting.