ON THE COVER

Frost in the morning, cool crisp air, fields of stubble and shocks of corn, and clouds that predict the flurries of snow soon to come, bring to mind Whittier's well-known Autumn Festival:

"Once more the liberal year laughs out, O'er richer stores than gems or gold;
Once more with harvest-song and shout
Is Natures bloodless triumph told."
