ALMOST FOUR MONTHS LATER

Three months and eight days after the balloons were released at the Fourth of July picnic, Roscoe Rumpfelt of East Marion, North Carolina, returned one of the cards which were attached to the balloons. Roscoe found the card on October 12th while he was squirrel hunting near Thermal City, N. C., with the hunting season in full swing these days, there will probably be a lot more cards returned to us.

ECUSTANS ATTEND CAROLINA-GEORGIA FOOTBALL CLASSIC AT ATHENS, GEORGIA

Some 70 Ecustans boarded two buses on Saturday morning, October 7th, and journeyed to Athens, Georgia, to witness the North Carolina-Georgia football game. This is the fifth consecutive year the football trip has been made possible by the Athletic Department. A good time was reported by all in spite of the heat, weather which was more suitable for baseball than football.

This was the first trip to Athens for the group, the four previous trips being made to Knoxville, and those making the trip enjoyed the somewhat easier trip and all it would have taken to make the trip more complete would have been a Carolina victory, of course, the Georgia fans felt the same way, and since the Tarheels couldn't win, they were content to settle with a tie.

Those making the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bagwell, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Eberle, Mr. and Mrs. George Huskamp, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Burch, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Souther, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Collier, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Head, Mr. and Mrs. Few Lyda, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Harris, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Poor, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Macfie, Mr. and Mrs. Randall Lankford, Dr. Zachary, Lillian Zachary, Doc Simms, Willie Nelson, Mildred Scott, Lucille Dockens, Lewis Meece, Ruth Hardin, Homer Batson, Mary Sue Thorne, Mrs. Raymond Bennett, Wayne Conn, Ed. Happ, Nat Townsend, Hugh Bradburn, Ansel Jones, Joe Lavell, Frank Marder, Jim Rigdon, George Sexton, Ralph Brown, Pete Wright, Herman Carland, John Goldberger, and Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Merrell.
