

BASEBALL PLAYERS HONORED WITH SPORTS BANQUET

The third annual Summer Sports Banquet honoring our Ecusta baseball players was held in the Cafeteria on Saturday night, December 16th.

Some sixty-five Ecustans attended the successful occasion which was highlighted by the awarding of various trophies to individuals, very interesting movies and a quiz program preceded by a turkey dinner with all the trimmings.

Mr. Lee Bauer opened the evening entertainment by awarding special prizes to some of the outstanding men of our Interdepartmental League. When we say outstanding we mean just that. Footsie Case was presented a pair of shoes, size OOTW (out of this world) to match his feet and honors of the league. Rusty Carland, third in line, won the first place batting crown of the season.

THE TROPHY WINNERS

Shown above are recipients of the various trophies awarded at the Banquet. The top photo shows Lee Bauer presenting "Footsie" Frank Case a pair of shoes. Inset is the mystery umpire with his new glasses. Valory Carter.

In the bottom photograph, shown, left to right are as follows: Ray Hooper pinch-hitting for Wayne Nicholson who is in Clinton, Iowa. Marshall Loftis who is next in line finished in a dead-lock with Nicholson for the second place batting

Ed White and Wilson Gregory, co-managers for the Machine Room, are shown holding the Camp Sapphire Series Cup won by their team in the post-season play-off. Last but not least, Troy Drake, manager of the Champagne team, proudly displays the season's Championship trophy which was won by his team.