

Thirty members of the "A" Band, eighteen members of the "B" Band, ten members of the "C" Band, and 75 students of the Choral School were presented certificates by Mr. Philip C. Brownell on July 6th.

During the one month period instructions were given in solo, sight reading, harmony, and theory, and classes were held in group and sectional singing. The instructors were John Eversman, Lucille Heffner, and Charles Glass of the Recreation department; Lorraine Parris, Director of Music in the city schools of Newberry, South Carolina; Colonel E. B. Gans, U. S. Army, retired; and Virginia Thompson, Music Director of Valley Springs school and former member of the Ecusta Band. Each year the company sponsors the Band Camp and Choral School for one month during the summer. Instructions, instruments and transportation are furnished free to the students.

BAND CAMP AND CHORAL SCHOOL

Lorraine Parris, above, conducting the "B" Band.

Patsy Bryant, at right, is shown conducting a tuba duet, composed of Wayne Burgess (left) and Clifton Metcalf.

Stanford Hardin, below, conducting the Beginner's Band.

