

AWARDING OF THE HARRY H. STRAUS MEMORIAL TROPHY HIGHLIGHTS BASEBALL BANQUET

The initial presentation of the beautiful Harry H. Straus Memorial Trophy highlighted the fourth Annual Summer Sports Banquet, held in the Ecusta Cafeteria on Friday night, December 15th.

Mr. L. F. Dixon, in making the presentation of the Straus Trophy to Wilson Gregory, Manager of the Ecusta Yankee Baseball Team, champion of the 1951 season, praised the late Mr. Harry Straus highly for his profound interest in his employees and their welfare. Mr. Dixon also expressed praise and appreciation to Mr. George R. Wallace, President of the Fitchburgh Paper Company of Fitchburgh, Mass., for his donation of the beautiful trophy in recognition of the friendship that existed between these two men.

Other activities highlighting the evening's entertainment included the awarding of the Play-Off Series Trophy by Mr. Phillip C. Brownell, to the Play-Off Champion Cardinals team, with Troy

Continued on page 12

At left: Mr. L. F. Dixon congratulates Wilson Gregory, Manager of the 1951 Ecusta Champion Yankee team, as he presents him the beautiful Harry H. Straus Memorial Trophy, at the fourth annual Ecusta Baseball Banquet. This event inaugurated the use of the beautiful trophy which will be awarded annually to the championship team of the Ecusta Baseball League. The Yankee club consists of men from paper and cellophane manufacturing departments.

At left, Mr. Phillip C. Brownell is shown congratulating Troy Drake, as he presents him with the Ecusta Play-Off Series championship Trophy. Troy received the trophy in behalf of the play-off championship team, the Cardinals, of which he is manager. The Cardinal club consists of men from the Champagne paper and cellophane coating departments.