FISHING LICENSE REQUIREMENTS

All persons over 16 years of age who fish by pole and line or rod and reel outside of their county of residence must have in their possession a valid State fishing license or daily permit. A license is required before fishing in one's county of residence if artificial bait is used.

All non-residents over 12 years of age must obtain a non-resident, state-wide annual fishing license, a non-resident 5-day permit, or a non-resident daily permit before fishing in the waters of this State.

Members of the armed services who are residents of North Carolina and are on furlough are not required to possess a fishing license. Veterans who served overseas and are stationed at a Veterans' Hospital or facility and undergoing treatment there are not required to possess a fishing license. This provision is in force for the duration of World War II and 6 months thereafter. Non-resident members of the armed forces, assigned to active duty at a military facility in North Carolina, are entitled to purchase resident State fishing licenses without regard to State residence requirements.

A landowner and members of his family under 21 years of age may fish on their own property without the requirement of fishing license.

Six months' habitation in any county is necessary to constitute legal residence in that county.

Chan Ashworth of the Power Department is shown above with the 10¾ pound bass that he caught recently in Lake Lure. The fish was caught on a Voblex lure. It was 27¼ inches long and 20 inches in girth. This bass will probably win him a prize in the Power Department contest.

LET'S HAVE A LI'L FUN

During a fire in a certain Ohio town the editor of the local paper, being unable to locate the regular reporter, sent out the young society editress. The story of the fire appeared thusly:

"A brilliant fire was held yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Sopp on Crown Hill Avenue. A large number of people attended the function.

"Mrs. Sopp, who recently had her hair shingled, made a charming escape in an exceedingly handsome henna silk blouse, the pattern of which appeared on our woman's page last week.

"The firemen, who presented an attractive appearance, were suitably garbed in blue, the tunics being full cut.

"The weather was quite delightful for an affair of this kind, a strong wind blowing. It was rumored that the fire was on a larger scale than any previous affair of a similar kind for years. It is also rumored that it cost Mr. and Mrs. Sopp about $25,000."

Life begins when a person first realizes how soon it ends.
