CAFETERIA & CANTEEN

By Anne Kitchen

We had a short summer, didn't we! Just when everybody was planning a vacation, Ole Man Winter came roaring back and froze out most of the plans.

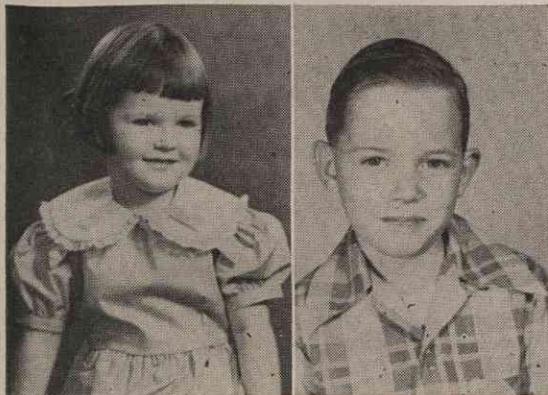

As for vacations, those enjoying theirs this month from the Cafeteria were: Divola, who spent her time at Glenville Lake catching big fish; Joe Duckworth, who spent his week at home fixing his yard where it washed away; Vance Cagle, who tried to catch up with his sleep, and, as for Doyle Gillespie and Curtiss Chapman, we don't have any report of what they did.

L. C. Conner is leaving us to join the Merchant Marines as a baker.

Those on the sick list from the Cafeteria are Paul Patterson and Glenn Newton. Glad they are able to be back to work.

We have several fishing tales from our department. Ethel Batson and your reporter went fishing — but never got a bite. Walter Perkins also went fishing. He said if he had caught the one that bit his hook and two more he would have had three. Floyd Taylor reports a good catch—so many we are afraid to tell how many he caught. (You'd never believe us, or him, either). Reeves Ricker went to Glenville Lake and amidst the awful storm Saturday caught 22.

Oliva English doesn't mind the cold weather. She took her family to Cascade Lake for a camping-out expedition.

Above are Audrey, age 4, and Charles Fredrick, age 9, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sherman. Fred is employed in the Cafeteria.

MEMORIAL DAY SERVICES

Employees, families and friends will pay tribute to the sixteen Ecusta employees who lost their lives in World War II, on Friday, May 30. The Memorial Day services will be held at Camp Straus at 2:00 P. M.

The Memorial plot, situated at the head of the lake, was dedicated on May 30, 1948.

A Guard of Honor consisting of Ecusta Veterans will place a wreath on the monument and the Ecusta band will play several hymns. The Reverend John D. Smith will lead the opening and closing prayers. Mr. E. B. Garrett, Jr., will be in charge of program arrangements.

REFINING

By Jack Rhodes

The following men were recent vacationers in Refining: Jack Wilber, Guy Emerson, Harry Patterson, C. V. Nicholson, W. B. Kilpatrick, Burgess Owen, W. C. McClung, Herbert Williams and Ansel Jones

Jack Wilber and the missus spent their vacation in Florida, soaking up that good Florida sunshine and deep-sea fishing. I'll bet Jack got caught up on his sleep, too.

Most of the boys must be staying pretty close home because we don't hear too much about the big one that got away.

Burgin Kilpatrick has a new grass cutting idea — All you have to do is stake out a horse or two to graze and take a nice leisurely nap. When you wake up, presto, your grass is cut.

Guy Emerson spent his vacation painting and growling. Painting cause The Boss said so and growling cause he couldn't go fishing.

Friends of Leland Thomas will be glad to learn that he is improving at the local hospital.

Mrs. Oscar Harbin is recuperating from a recent operation.

Me, I'm tickled pink. My wife presented me with a daughter on May 3. Named her Linda Kathryn, and both she and her mother are doing fine.

That's about all, so see you next month.

The important thing about a problem is not its solution, but the strength we gain in finding the solution.
