

BERKELEY WINS 1952 CROWN

Ecusta Finishes Fourth

The Berkeley Spinners of Berkeley Mills, Inc., copped the 1952 Western North Carolina Industrial League Baseball Crown with a record of 34 wins and 5 losses. The Beacon Blanketeers, defending champions finished in second place with a record of 24 wins and 13 losses.

The Enka Rayonites finished in third place with a record of 21 wins and 18 losses and our Ecusta team finished fourth with a record of 19 wins and 19 losses. Clearwater finished fifth with a 9 won 27 loss record. Due to unfortunate circumstances the sixth place Tryon club withdrew from the league in early August.

CELLOPHANE OPERATIONS BASEBALL TEAM WINS

The Cellophane Operations baseball team, under the managership of David Sams, copped the 1952 crown and the coveted Harry H. Straus Memorial Trophy with a record of nine wins and three losses for the season. The Paper Converting team, managed by Troy Drake finished in second place with a record of eight wins and four losses.

The Paper Manufacturing team defending champion, under the leadership of Wilson Gregory finished in third place with a record of five wins and six losses. Cellophane Maintenance finished in the cellar with a record of one win and ten losses.

The leagues post season play-off series is scheduled for August 28, 29 and 30, with Paper Converting and Cellophane Maintenance meeting each other on the 28th and Cellophane Operations playing Paper Manufacturing on the 29th. The winners will meet on Saturday August 30, to decide the league's play-off Champion.

CAN YOU TELL WHO'S WHO?

Shown here together are the popular Norton twins of our Ecusta baseball team. If you have trouble telling them apart on the field: Luther, standing, is a right-hander and Dennis seated, is the southpaw. Unless they switch gloves on you then you too can call them by their correct names.
