

ION SCHOOL CHILDREN . . .

6. Keep the aisles clear of books, lunch boxes, etc.
7. Gain the cooperation of fellow pupils; report to bus driver anyone who refuses to follow the rules of safety.
8. In unloading, descend from bus, and under supervision of bus driver, assist those pupils who must cross the road.
9. Keep an attendance report on each trip; see that the bus driver has the report for his records.

10. Give special attention to smaller children—see that their safety and comfort are assured.

Do we understand the value of this "Priceless Cargo"? They represent our country's future. May God bless them and help us protect them from harm.
