

Nurses come in for their share of paper work too. Charts must be filled out daily for every patient under the nurse's care. These charts include temperature, medication and other medical data and must be kept up-to-date should a doctor ask to see it. Dot completes a patient's chart before going off duty.

After-duty hours are theirs to spend as they choose. Here a group relaxes over cokes and sandwiches. Third from left is Dot Bryson daughter of Tom Bryson (Inspection Department, Paper Division).

Far left: Signing out before leaving for a movie, shopping trip, or weekend at home is necessary so the hospital may contact her if she is needed. Left: Study sessions in the library are not at all unusual.
