

SHIPPING & SHEETING

By Callie Talley

There are just two topics of conversation in here now—"flu" and income tax. Everyone has been infected and affected by same.

Willoree, Dot, Lorena, Eula and "Becky" were on the absentee list this month. They're all back now except Dot. Hurry back, Dot. Turman is absent also with the "bug".

Lewis Meece's dad was sick several days.

Thanks for the candy and congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cassell. They have a new son in their home.

Ralph Patterson, be more careful with your flashlight—you may need it in the future. By the way—Ralph isn't taking any more orders for pups.

Wonder if Gene Watson got his Toni on Frozen Creek?

The big drum operated three shifts for a week, and so the Cutters, inspectors and wrappers were busy(?)

We know what to do next time the wrappers are behind—Cecil and Lamon wrap neat packages.

Cecil and Waddel say they have a vacancy for a lady passenger as one of theirs is quitting work. They're all married men now—Turman Benison being the last to accept the bonds of matrimony.

If anyone wants to know why Ruby Rigdon's car horn blew each day unattended, ask her. Maybe she will give you the same reason she gave us.

Eugene Glenn says the price of eggs is coming down.

What's this we hear about a production increase in Maintenance?

Congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Misenheimer. They have a little girl. Thanks Johnny for the treat.

"A" SHIFT FINISHING

By Earl Bumgarner

This month has sure been a quiet one — no babies born, no marriages, no divorces, and just no nothing to talk about.

Dallas Smith grabbed his hat and coat and left like a flash the other day. Usually when anyone leaves in that big a hurry, you would think there was going to be a new baby—and that's just what we thought, but in this case, "no dice."

Since rabbit hunting season is over, there aren't any big tales being told, and some of the boys have long faces as though they had lost their best friend. Cheer up, "Hoot", fishing season will be here soon.

The coke machine has been paying off lately. James Adcock said there was nothing wrong with the machine, but that we just get more for our money under the new administration.

Joe Delk is in Wrap & Pack now and Fred Warren is pretty lonesome spotting tubes, since Joe is not there to sing to him.

Earl Berchfield has been all smiles for the past month or two. Does anybody know why?

"B" SHIFT FINISHING

By Joseph S. Wilde, Jr.

Here I go again with an attempt to supply you folks with a bit of news about our gang.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Stamey from Canton announce the arrival of a daughter, Patricia Ann, weighing 6 lbs. 13 oz.

She was born on January 15. Patricia, mother and dad are all doing fine.

After so long a wait, the tiny visitor, Martha, has arrived at Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Misenheimer's. The little daughter weighed 5 lbs. 13 oz. and was born February 8. Johnny says Mother and daughter are both doing O.K.

Andrew Hare traded cars last week and missed three days work because he got "burnt" so badly on his trade. He traded a Chevrolet for a Buick with twin carburetors and said, "it would pass everything on the road except a gas station".

Congratulations to James Gillespie and his new bride, who were married on February 8. All the boys wish you a happy married life and a nice honeymoon trip.

All Merrit Jackson needed was a donkey with those cowboy pants on. Is it true, Merrit? Did you have to grease your feet in order to get them through the legs? (Grady Jackson bought Merrit a pair of cowboy pants if he would wear them. Merrit wore them one day.)

Ernest Gilstrap said that he had lost 8 lbs., since
