JOHN D. EVERSMAN IS GIVEN SERVICE PLAQUE

John D. Eversman, Public Relations Director of Brevard College, was awarded a service plaque on January 29, for meritorious service to Ecusta and to the community as Director of Music and Recreation from February 1942 to January 1, 1953.

The presentation was made by L. F. Dixon and N. H. Collisson at a brief ceremony in the Main Office conference room. The ceremony was attended by officials of Transylvania Schools, Brevard College, Radio Station WPNF, The Transylvania Times, and Ecusta and the Harwid Company of Cambridge, Mass.

The plaque was designed and engraved by Fred G. Hoffman of the Engineering Department.

All To Whom These Presents Come,
Greeting

Whereas, John Dillon Eversman was employed by the Ecusta Paper Corporation on February 6, 1942 and discharged meritoriously his responsibilities as Director Of Music & Recreation from that date to January 1, 1953, and

Whereas, he aspired to inculcate in his fellow employees and the entire community in which we live an understanding and an appreciation of the music with all of the benefits attendant thereto, and

Whereas, by inspired leadership and direction in the art of which he is a master, he has added to the comfort and esthetic enjoyment of his fellow men by implanting the ability to recognize and enjoy good music with an appreciation that comes only with understanding, and

Whereas, realizing the receptivity of children, he accomplished, by sound instructive methods, an understanding of music by our youth which will have a lasting effect on the future life of our community, and

Now Therefore, with complete realization of the important contribution which he has thus made to the culture and understanding of our people, and with the full knowledge of an undertaking that has now been completed with distinction, we, the undersigned desire to express the gratitude and commendations of our people for an outstanding and inspired accomplishment

Signed, this Tenth day of January, in the year of our Lord, A.D., 1953
