

TOURNAMENT RESULTS

PONDER, PATTERSON, LANNING, AND REYNOLDS STAR HILLBILLIES WIN TEAM EVENT

N. L. Ponder, of the Pirates placed in all four events of Ecusta's Annual Bowling tournament to be the top individual prize winner for 1953. Ponder captured the first place prizes in the Singles and All Events competition, and placed seventh in the Doubles, while his team finished third in the Team Event.

Paul Patterson and Linton Lanning of the Cello-Mecks teamed together to take first place in the Doubles Events.

Bruce Reynolds was the second highest individual winner. Although his Transportation team failed to place in the Team Event, Bruce teamed with Hunley Mehaffey to place second in the Doubles Event. He took third place honors in the Singles and second place honors in the All Events.

The Hillbillies captured first place in the Team Event surpassing their nearest competitor by a margin of one hundred and fourteen pins.

Individual and team scores of the tournament are listed below.
