

MEMORIAL

DAY

SERVICES

MAY 30, 1953

Top photos: Mr. N. H. Collisson is shown as he delivered the principal address at Memorial Day Services held Saturday, May 30, at Gillespie Cemetery in Brevard. Wreaths were placed around the Memorial Stone and a rifle salute was given by the Legion Honor Guard. The services, in which tribute was paid to the dead of both World Wars, were conducted by several local organizations. Lower left: Participants in the Memorial Day Services held at Camp Straus included John C. Cassell (Olin cellophane maintenance), Alfred McCall (transportation), Rev. B. W. Thomason of Brevard, Bob Bolt (special services) and Coman Hamilton (Ecusta paper electric shop). Lower right: Coman Hamilton, after placing a wreath at the monument erected in memory of Ecusta employees who lost their lives in World War II, salutes as John C. Cassell and Alfred McCall raise our Country's colors.
