

SOFTBALL LEAGUE TOURNAMENT TO CLIMAX A VERY SUCCESSFUL SEASON

Monday afternoon, September 7th will mark the beginning of the 1953 Ecusta Softball League Tournament with nineteen teams participating. The league officials, Hugh Bradburn, president; and directors W. F. Huffman, David Sams, Wilson Gregory and Mitchell Taylor in a meeting on Wednesday, August 12th declared the closing date of the season for Friday, September 4th, with the post-season tournament scheduled to start the following Monday.

The officials voted to award the league's team with the best won and lost record at the end of the season the coveted Harry H. Straus Trophy and to award the Play-Off Trophy to the winning team of the tournament.

Since the beginning of the softball league play on May 21st some 441 employees have taken part in a total of 250 games played.

The league officials, managers and players are to be commended for the wonderful success of our softball league, and they are to be congratulated for the fine spirit of fellowship, fair play and good sportsmanship they have displayed throughout the season.

SOFTBALL LEAGUE RESULTS

FROM JULY 20 THROUGH AUGUST 17

July 20—A Bums 9, Jets 0
 July 20—5 C's 16, Wonders 12
 July 20—Red Caps 23, Sluggers 15
 July 20—Bulldogs 12, Rebels 11
 July 21—Cello Mecks 7, Sluggers 6
 July 22—D Shift 9, Jets 0

Jack Ammons, ace right-hander, has pitched the Ecusta team to two thrilling victories recently over the league-leading Berkeley Spinners. In winning these games, Jack had excellent control and a wide assortment of pitches. Ecusta has had four wins this season over the Industrial League champs who have lost only six.

July 22—Red Caps 14, 5 C's 13
 July 23—A Bums 12, A Control 3
 July 24—Bulldogs 12, D Shift 5
 July 24—Cello Mecks 11, B Slitting 7
 July 24—Main Office 7, Scrubs 2
 July 24—Olinairs 14, Rebels 13
 July 24—Rejects 8, A Bums 7
 July 24—A Control 27, Red Caps 2
 July 27—Cello Wonders 6, D Shift 5
 July 27—Cello Wonders 6, D Shift 5
 July 28—A Slitting 11, Main Office 2
 July 28—Bulldogs 10, Sluggers 6
 July 29—D Shift 9, Red Caps 0
 July 29—Scrubs 23, Jets 22
 July 29—Cello Mecks 16, Rejects 14
 July 29—A Control 19, Rebels 14
 July 30—Main Office 4, Olinairs 1
 July 30—Rejects 21, 5 C's 15
 July 30—Bulldogs 19, Jets 2
 July 31—A Bums 12, Rebels 5
 Aug. 3—5 C's 27, Jets 6
 Aug. 3—D Shift 21, Cello Mecks 7
 Aug. 4—Main Office 4, Wonders 3
 Aug. 4—A Bums 11, Cello Mecks 8
 Aug. 5—Bulldogs 9, Scrubs 0
 Aug. 6—Main Office 8, A Control 7
 Aug. 6—Sluggers 8, Rebels 4
 Aug. 11—Bulldogs 15, Rebels 2
 Aug. 11—Main Office 8, D. Shift 0
 Aug. 11—Olinairs 12, Sluggers 6
 Aug. 12—D Shift 12, Sluggers 11
 Aug. 12—B Slitting 14, A Bums 10
 Aug. 13—Main Office 12, Rejects 8
 Aug. 13—Olinairs 13, Cello Mecks 4
 Aug. 13—Sluggers 27, Hornets 14
 Aug. 13—Wonders 15, Rebels 6
 Aug. 14—Cello Mecks 9, Bulldogs 4
 Aug. 14—B Slitting 10, Hornets 3
 Aug. 17—A Bums 29, Hornets 9

Probably the reason that God made woman last was that he didn't want any advice while creating man.—Concern.

A woman may appreciate a husband who works like a horse all day, but she doesn't want him to snort about it all evening.

If you consistently do your best, the worst won't happen.—B. C. Forbes.

Character is like a rifle; it cannot shoot higher than it is aimed.—Woodmen of the World Mag.

There are only a few things heavier than lead—one of them being a guilty conscience.—Grit.

So what if the world does laugh at you? Laugh back! It's funnier than you are.—Oren Arnold, Kiwanis Magazine.

Reckless motorist: Man of extinction.—News-ette.