

Boys and Girls Learn To Work Cooperatively Through Supervised Training

The group of girls shown at right, are a majority of the 84 girls who attended the 1953 session of the Coaching School.

Shown standing behind the group are instructors Fritz Merrell, Carolyn Kizer, Lucille Heffner and Roy Reeves. The staff of the life guards gave instructions for both the boys and girls school.
