

PEOPLE AND PICTURES

TRANSYLVANIA SCOUTERS HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

Adult leaders in the Transylvania District of the Boy Scouts of America held their annual meeting at Camp Straus in November. Rev. R. H. Stamey, president of Brevard College, was the principal speaker.

During the business session, Charles Dunlop was reelected chairman of the Transylvania District, and Earle Bryant and Lehman Kapp were named vice-chairmen. Gordon Sprott was elected district commissioner for 1954.

Guests at the meeting were Forest Gardner, vice-president of the Daniel Boone Council, A. W. Allen, executive secretary of the Council, Robert Garner, field executive, and the scout masters and assistants of the district. This last group included Valery Carter and Hugh Bradburn of Troop 5, Robert Head and Harry Kolman of Troop 4, Paul Price and Jack Morgan of Troop 1, Gaston Siniard of Troop 11, John D. Reeves of Troop 14, Richard Gustafson and Bill Alexander of Troop 3, Fritz Merrell of Troop 2, Bly Rogers of Troop 12, Donald McCall of Troop 16, and George Spicer and Rev. David Cooper of Cub Scout Packs 1 and 2, respectively.

Top: Part of the group that attended the annual dinner for adult scouters.

Top right: The Rev. R. H. Stamey

Center: The newly elected officers of the Transylvania District are shown above with officials of the Daniel Boone Council. They are, left to right, Charles Dunlop, Bob Garner, Lehman Kapp, Earle Bryant, A. W. Allen and Gordon Sprott.

Left above: Scoutmasters, Assistant Scoutmasters and Cubmasters of the Transylvania District. They are, left to right, Dick Gustafson, Valery Carter, Gaston Siniard, Harry Kolman, Hugh Bradburn, Left: John Reeves, Jack Morgan, Paul Price, Robert Head and Rev. David Cooper.