First of all we would like to welcome Edna Waldrop into our midst. Edna is our new stenographer who replaced Mary Jane McCall. Sincerely hope you enjoy working with us, Edna.

Mary Jane has been transferred to the Power Department, and we wish her the best of luck with her new job.

Charlie Glazener is in Charleston on a 2-weeks' Navy duty tour.

Gus Grose and Charlie Norlander spent a week's vacation at Myrtle Beach. They came back with wonderful tans.

Joe Schlosser and Jim Brennan, with their families, vacationed at New Smyrna Beach, Florida and reported a nice time.

Freddie Norris vacationed for a week trying to acquire a sun tan and came back to work tanned and freckled.

Dr. Sigmon spent a week of his vacation just taking it easy.

At the time of this writing, Lucy Clarke is vacationing at the beach in Charleston, S. C.

These beaches sure do sound wonderful. All one needs is the time and the money!

JEWEL WILSON WINS PRIZE IN SAFETY CONTEST

Jewel Wilson of the Factory Office received word last month that she had won a $5.00 prize for a winning line in the March Calendar contest, which is sponsored by the National Safety Council. Limericks are printed on the calendars which were distributed to each employee by the Safety Departments. We believe that Jewel is the first to win an award in these contests.
