

Following are brief career sketches of the new Officers of Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation:

Russell R. Casteel Norman H. Collisson D. W. Drummond

NEW OLIN MATHIESON OFFICERS

RUSSELL R. CASTEEL

Russell R. Casteel, vice president of Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation has been connected with Olin Industries since 1936.

A graduate of the University of Missouri with a degree in liberal arts in 1924 and a law degree in 1927, Mr. Casteel first practiced law in St. Louis and was counsel for Stifel Nicolaus and Company, Inc. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, honorary scholastic fraternity.

Mr. Casteel joined the Western Cartridge Company as corporation counsel and was elected assistant secretary in 1942. He was elected secretary of Olin Industries in 1944 when it was formed by the merger of Western Cartridge Company and the Olin Corporation and was elected a director in 1946.

N. H. COLLISSON

N. H. Collisson, vice president for operations of Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation, is responsible for the operation of the Film, Paper, Forest Products and Electrical Divisions, which also were his responsibility for Olin Industries, Inc.

A native of Philadelphia and a graduate of Swarthmore College, Mr. Collisson was engaged in civil engineering for 16 years. He spent five years in the Navy during World War II as an engineering officer advancing from lieutenant to captain.

Mr. Collisson is a former United States Coal Administrator. He was special assistant to the Secretary of the Interior in 1947 and for two years was Chief of Mission, Economic Cooperation Administration to Germany.

Appointed general manager of Olin's Cellophane Division (now the Film Division), in 1951, Mr. Collisson became vice president for operations in 1953.

SPENCER T. OLIN

Spencer T. Olin, director of Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation, grew up with Olin Industries, Inc., and played an important part in its expansion. In his 33 years with the enterprise he has participated in all aspects of its affairs.

His wide knowledge of the Olin operations was gained from his experience successively as works manager, sales manager, secretary, treasurer, vice-president, and with the formation in 1945 of Olin Industries, as first vice-president.

A marksman and hunter, Mr. Olin made the highest score, 970 out of 1,000 targets, in the 1932 Grand American Handicap. Like his father and brother, he is a graduate of Cornell University and has a degree in mechanical engineering. He has been active in Alton community affairs, and in 1950 received the Alton Civic Award given by the Order of deMolay.

In addition to having been an officer, a director, a member of the executive committee of Olin Industries, and an officer or director of Olin subsidiary and affiliated companies, Mr. Olin is a director of the Illinois Bell Telephone Company, Laclede Steel Company, St. Louis Union Trust Company, First National Bank and Trust Company, Alton, Illinois, and the Illinois State Bank of East Alton.