

Theodore Weicker, Jr. Edgar W. Taft C. C. Tallman Gordon Grand John J. Toohy

Mathieson Overseas Division. Mr. Weicker had been associated with E. R. Squibb & Sons since 1942 and from 1925 to 1930. Squibb was merged with Mathieson in 1952. He was administrative vice president and a director of the E. R. Squibb & Sons International Corporation. From 1939 to 1941 he was a partner in E. F. Hutton & Co. and from 1931 to 1938 a partner in Weicker & Co., members of the New York stock exchange.

EDGAR W. TAFT

Edgar W. Taft, treasurer and a director of the Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation, is a veteran of 38 years with the company's New Haven offices. The first 15 years of his career were spent with the former Winchester Repeating Arms Company and the last 23 years with the Olin organization following the company's acquisition of Winchester in 1931.

Mr. Taft has held various engineering, purchasing, accounting and financial positions with Winchester or Olin until he was appointed assistant treasurer of Olin Industries, Inc., in 1939. He was elected to the Olin board of directors in 1942 and was elected company treasurer the following year.

C. C. TALLMAN

C. C. Tallman, Comptroller of the Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation, joined the Olin organization in 1942.

A native of Syracuse, New York, Mr. Tallman is a graduate of Dartmouth College, Hanover, New Hampshire. He has a B.S. and M.C.S. degree.

Before joining Olin, Mr. Tallman had been assistant controller of Oswego Falls Corporation, Fulton, New York, and assistant controller of Franklin Automobile Company, Syracuse, New York. He was appointed controller of Olin Industries, Inc., in 1944. He is a member of the National Association of Cost Accountants and the Controllers' Institute of America.

GORDON GRAND

Gordon Grand, Jr., Secretary of Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation, is a former chief counsel and clerk to the Republican members of the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives.

A graduate of Hill School, Pottstown, Pa., and Yale University, he has a law degree from the Harvard Law School. He also took special work at the University of Madrid, Spain; University of North Carolina and Columbia University. He entered the Army as a private in March, 1941, and was promoted through the ranks to major. He was an assistant to Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson, serving in North Africa, Italy, France and Germany.

Mr. Grand taught for a year at Millbrook School, Millbrook, N. Y., before becoming an assistant in the law firm of Spence, Hotchkiss, Parker and Durfee. After six years as counsel for the Republican Ways and Means Committee, he joined the Olin organization in 1953 as assistant to the president. He is a member of the Bar Association of New York City and is a trustee for the Tax Foundation.

JOHN J. TOOHY

John J. Toohy is vice president for operations of Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation. He is also executive vice president of the E. R. Squibb & Sons Division of the Corporation, a position to which he was named in February of 1953. Previously Mr. Toohy, who has been with Squibb since 1922, held the post of sales vice president.

Among the positions held by Mr. Toohy at Squibb were: Branch Manager, Kansas City; Sales Manager, Home Necessities; and Manager of Field Personnel. During World War II Mr. Toohy served in the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., while on leave from Squibb.

Born in Cambridge, Mass. (Nov. 16, 1901), he attended St. Paul's School and Cambridge Latin School, from which he matriculated into Harvard University. He took an A.B. and A.M. degree at Harvard, with a heavy schedule of courses in chemistry.

Mr. Toohy resides at Rye, New York. He is married and has three sons and two daughters. He is a member of the Association of Harvard Chemists, the University Club, the Harvard Club, and has been prominent in New York Board of Trade activities.