

THE CAMPUS CRIER

VOL. IV

ASHEVILLE-BILTMORE COLLEGE, ASHEVILLE, N. C., MARCH 9, 1949

No. 6

Bulldogs Cager's Review Of Season

COURT CAPERS

By DON MURRAY

"The time has come the Walrus said,

To talk of many things,
Of books and ships and sealing wax,

Of cabbages and kings."
But, now is the time at A-BC
Before we're middle agers,
To speak of games and scores and points,

Compiled by Woody's Cagers.
And now before this poetry(?)
Can change from bad to worse,
I'll change my style to good old prose.

Instead of this droll verse.

For Floyd Woody's court wise cagers the season is over and their record stands as a tribute to Coach Woody. As the season drew on Coach Woody wore a hound-dog look, as what Coach wouldn't with only three letter-men returning with which to mold his team. But, as try-outs started coach immediately perked up, and it appeared as if we might be able to put a team on the floor after all.

In the first fracas of the season with lettermen Rudeen, Brinkley and Carter starting, ably assisted by Dub Thompson and John Isreal, the Bulldogs took warm-up victory over Sodaland 52-39. In the second clash, A-B dropped a 57-47 decision to the highly-touted S. C. frosh, the only team to hand them two defeats during the season.

W.C.T.C. "B" was the Bulldogs next victim and the A-B cagers put the bite on the baby cats to the tune of 56-49.

A-BC conference play opened with the Spartanburg Pioneers and with A-BC clicking on all five the Bulldogs won a close 51-50 decision.

W. C. T. C. "B" fell again by the score of 49-46, and the Bulldogs journeyed West to hand powerful Tusculum, a four-year institution, a 52-37 pasteing.

The Bulldogs then took to the
(Continued on Page 3)

STATE CONSIDERING AID FOR A-B.C.

In the opinion of North Carolina Representative Roy A. Taylor, Asheville-Biltmore College can qualify and may receive state support if and when the institution acquires Seely's Castle and the surrounding property.

Representative Taylor, who is a member of the Board of Trustees of the local college, sponsored a measure, which was brought before the General Assembly. The measure calls for a resolution to set up a special commission for working on plans to establish a junior college in Western North Carolina.

The special commission would work on three provisions,

1. To ascertain the facts as to the extent to which present colleges are meeting the needs of students on the freshman and sophomore levels.

2. To determine if there is need for the community college.

3. If it is found there is a need, (a) to define the purposes of the school, (b) set up standards and criteria for developing such schools, and (c) chart the program of action for the state and local communities in developing the schools, including recommendations for legislation on ways and means of financing and effectuating the program.

All indications point toward the need for a better junior college in this area. There are at least 49 per cent of our population that has the mental ability to complete 14 years of schooling with a curriculum of general and vocational subjects. Of this total, there is in the neighborhood of 25 per cent who are unable to complete the two additional years of study.

Asheville-Biltmore College could surely fit the need. The main objective of our struggling college is financial support. That we will

VETERANS ADMINISTRATION NEWS LETTER

January 24, 1949

The next few years will see an increased demand for college graduates in the fields of medicine, psychology, kindergarten and elementary school teaching and certain phases of electricity.

At the same time, competition will grow keener for positions in the fields of engineering, chemistry, pharmacy, law and personnel relations.

These conclusions were contained in a study prepared for the Veterans Administration by the Occupational Outlook Service, Bureau of Labor Statistics, U. S. Department of Labor.

The study is being used by VA advisement and guidance officers as an aid in counseling disabled veterans planning to take educational and training courses.

get if enough effort is put forth by everyone concerned.