Job 28:28

Unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom: and to depart from the evil is understanding.

EDITORIAL

The Campus Crier Staff is happy to say we are once more functioning. Due to unforeseen difficulties this paper has not been published regularly. However, for the remaining part of the school year we shall do our utmost to keep you abreast of the happenings in and around our college.

We extend a belated welcome to the new students on our campus. We sincerely hope you will become a part of the activity and will no longer be regarded as a new student.

What seems to be the trouble with our school spirit? Did it go out with the old year? If every person does his or her share in making Asheville-Biltmore a place of lively activity, we shall not have to even think of school spirit. It will come without any other effort. Let's make ours a happy college to match its academic standards. How about it?

College Has Record Shower

By June Eva Young

A public "record shower" was given by the Asheville Branch of the American Association of University Women for the benefit of the college music department. Scores of records were received.

Following tea, Clemens Sandresky, head of the music department, gave a musical program, which included: Brahms Ballade in G Major, Brahms Intermezzo in E Flat Major, and Schubert's Impromptu in E Flat Major.

Hostesses for the event were: Mrs. Glenn Bushey, Mrs. Adele Lowrance, Mrs. Bryan Carter, Mrs. Cornelia Serota, Miss Mary Miller, and Mrs. Norman Wishart.

Members of the Philos Mousos Club of A-BC were assistant hosts and hostesses. They were: Mrs. Irene Sherrell, Miss Katherine Sevier, Miss Arberta Floyd, Hugh Transou, Noah Stewart, Wendell Brittain, Bill Weaver, Richard Jordan, and Jack Robinson. They escorted guests through the buildings and grounds following the musical program.

Mrs. J. W. Moore was chairman of transportation and cars were furnished at the City Auditorium for guests who desired transportation.

Special guests at the tea included the Hendersonville Music Club which contributed 2 albums of opera; members of the music department of St. Genevieve of the Pines and Plonk School, and members of the Asheville Music Club with M. A. Sullivan, President.

Mrs. S. D. Foster was Chairman of the shower; Mrs. W. J. D. Van Dobbendorgh, AAUW President.

Mrs. M. A. James and Mrs. R. P. Simmons collected records which had been left at downtown music stores. Radio stations gave recordings which had been used a few weeks. L. A. Owen contributed a loan collection of 150 classical records. Mission Hospital nurses purchased several albums of concertos. Mrs. Nina Z. Fitzpatrick has started a collection of rare old operatic compositions for the college.
