Student Council Will Sponsor First Spring Dance

A Spring dance for students at Asheville-Biltmore is scheduled for March 31, at 8:00 P. M. in Seely Hall, main assembly room of the school.

The event, an annual admission-free affair sponsored by the student council, is open to both freshman and sophomore pupils. A student activity card must be shown by at least one member of each visiting dance party.

Grady Nichols and his orchestra will furnish music for the occasion and light refreshments will be served during the evening. Zeb Vance is chairman of the dance committee with Joe Joyner and Quentin Enloe handling decorations and refreshments.

REFORMIST PARTY HAS CONCLAVE

The Reformist Party of Asheville-Biltmore College held its initial meeting of the year at the home of Mr. Wooton last Friday night in preparation for the coming election of student body officers the latter part of next month. The meeting was a fore-runner of the big convention that is being planned for the first week following spring vacation.

Any member of the student body who approves of the party platform and its candidates is invited by the Party officers to be present at the convention next month and sign up with the party.

Miss Helen Dickerson, Editor of the "Campus Crier", presided over the meeting. Refreshments and entertainment immediately followed the business session.

RED CROSS BLOOD- MOBILE HERE

As most of you know the American Red Cross Bloodmobile was here March 20, all day long. But what we don't know is who gave blood to the blood bank. There were 11 students that were willing to give blood, but of the 11, 3 were turned down due to causes unknown. The College is proud of these girls and boys who gave so that the Red Cross Blood Bank might give more.

These are the eight students who gave blood:—Charles Marler, Nick Papalakis, Lew Smith, Charline Williams, Ronald McMillan, William Harris, Ralph Bansbach and Gerald Thompson.
