LAUGHTER LEADS A.B. TRIUMPH

Lanky John Laughter gave a magnificent scoring performance to lead Asheville-Biltmore to an 88-74 victory over Spartanburg Saturday night.

The victory was the second in as many starts against Western Carolina Junior College Conference foes during the week.

Laughter hit 36 points on close shots. He received excellent support offensively from guards Norman Youngblood and Phil McKinney, who hit from outside with deadly accuracy. Youngblood accounted for 21 points and McKinney for 18.

Buddy Broome and Jim Gentry, with 21 and 16 points respectively, led Spartanburg.
