

The Campus Crier

76

ASHEVILLE-BILTMORE COLLEGE

Volume XIV-RL

ASHEVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA, MARCH, 1961

Number 4

H A P P Y E A S T E R

Holidays are in sight! Students will be happy to know that Spring Vacation will begin on Saturday, March 25, and classes will not resume until Monday, April 3.

"Playboy" the Crier mascot will spend his first Easter away from his paternal home. We hope he will be happy with his lucky new owner.

The drawing for "Playboy" will be held in assembly on Thursday, March 23. Students must be present to win!

HONOR STUDENTS ELECTED TO PHI-THETA-KAPPA

Formal invitations to Phi-Theta-Kappa were given to seven outstanding students on Thursday, February 9th in the assembly program. Jim Woody from the Sophomore Class and John Erickson, Sandra Yelverton, Mickey Schandler, William Johnson, Phyllis Hampton, and Wanda Parkhurst from the Freshman Class received invitations.

Phi-Theta-Kappa is a national honorary scholastic society with chapters in 245 colleges throughout the country. Members are elected on the basis of scholastic standing and must be within the upper scholastic ten per cent of the student body. Eta Sigma chapter of Phi-Theta-Kappa was established at Asheville-Biltmore in 1950.

MASQUERS PRESENT SCENES FROM GREAT PLAYS

The Masquers, under the direction of Miss Flora McGhee, are carrying out a program of scenes from great plays.

Their itinerary includes Erwin High School, March 3; a literary branch of AAUW, March 8; Appalachian Hospital, March 15; and A-B assembly, March 23.

The following scenes make up their program: The lover's quarrel in Mr. Morgan's Drug Store from "Our Town" with Howard Williams and Nancy Jolly as George Gibbs and Emily Webb; the wedding morning from the same play with David Ellis as George, Margaret Eskridge as Mrs. Gibbs and Charles Wright and Pat Wooten as Mr. and Mrs. Webb. A third scene is depicted by Patricia Alexander who portrays Emily. The stage manager for the Thornton Wilder play is Charles Wright.

The second play is Noel Coward's "Cavalcade" from which John Rinehardt and Rita Grice play the lover's scene on the deck of the S. S. Titanic.

The third number is a monologue given by Margaret Eskridge arranged from the Robinson Jeffers translation of Euripides "Medea" presented March 8 and 23.

SPANISH CLUB MEMBERS PLAN ACTIVITIES

Olay! is the shout of the senoras y señoritas of the Spanish Club as they move into the second semester with bi-weekly meetings at the home of Mike Escalante a new Spanish student here at A-B. The meetings include lectures by senior Escalante, latin music, and strict Spanish conversation.

On April 9 a supper meeting will be held at Buck's Restaurant where all Spanish Club members will discuss foods from latin countries after a brief talk by senior Escalante.

Both the Spanish Club and the French Club are looking forward to the rollicking annual spring "Fiesta Real" which concludes the year for both clubs.

TEN NEW MEMBERS PLEDGED TO OMAR KHAYYAM

The following persons have been pledged and accepted by the Fraternal Order of Omar Khayyam: Terry Brookshire, Charles Med, Paul Michalove, Joel Trexler, David Ehle, Louie Sauls, Larry Knighten, John Carswell, Alan Wight, and Rusty Dymond.