

ASHEVILLE-BILTMORE COLLEGE

Volume XIV-R5

ASHEVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA, APRIL, 1961

Number 5

STUDENT BODY PRESIDENT TO BE ELECTED

The election of Student Body President, Vice-President, and Secretary-Treasurer will be held on April 28.

Nominatiin and acceptance speeches will be held in assembly Thursday, April 21. Basic qualifications for a candidate are as follows: a quality point average of 1.00 and a full-time student of the college.

The office of student body president is the most important and demanding position a student can hold. It not only incurs the responsibility of directing all student activities, through the student government but he must be a representative student of A-B College--the "Joe College" of this campus. His talents must include public relations expert, arbitrator, master of ceremonies and a hundred other qualifications of tact and diplomacy--that is, if the office is properly filled. His reward comes in the knowing that he has performed his duties to the best of his abilities, which had to be exceptional in the first place. This particular election will bestow the honor of First Student Body President of the NEW Asheville-Biltmore College.

The decision will be up to you the students. It will be difficult to decide which of the capable candidates is the most capable. When you make your decision, and cast your vote, give the issue more than casual thought, for the decision you make will not only affect the life of the nominee, but the future of Asheville Biltmore College.

PLANS BEING MADE FOR MAY DAY FESTIVITIES

The annual May Day festivities and dance will be held on Saturday May 6. The program will begin with the presentation of the May Court at 3:00 and the entire program will be held outside in front of our castle.

The festivities this year will consist of the presentation of the May Queen and her court, folk dances, and a Shakespearean play presented by the Masquers called "Much Ado About Nothing."

This year's May Queen is Miss Rita Grice. The Sophomore attendants are Glenda Andrews, Carole Hayes, Mickey Manship and Linda Merrill. Brenda Pacione, Linda Pacione, Phyllis Hampton, and Diane Nicker are Freshman attendants.

The play "Much Ado About Nothing" is a gay comedy of sophisticated lovers. Under the direction of Miss Flora McGhee the play has a y, uncomplicated plot with the lovers played by Nancy Jolly as Beatrice and John Rinehardt as Benedict.

Others in the cast are Howard Williams as Don Pedro, Jane Pinkerton as Margaret, Margaret Eskridge as Ursula, Patty Alexander as a cousin of Beatrice, Charles Wright as Dogherry, David Ellis as the Nightwatchman and Steve Pinkerton as the announcer.

FORD, HUDSON INCORPORATE;
GENERAL MOTORS PANICS

Miss Pat Hudson has made the "big step" (with her eyes wide open, we might add), to one Boyce Ford, former carousing bachelor and active member of Omar. (Board of Lords, too). We the members of the Campus Crier Staff feel it our duty to warn the former (and free) Miss Hudson what she has caught (or been caught by).

We can't do it (sob), we just can't do it. It would be too cruel and definitely unpatroitic. She will just have to learn the hard way the deep dark secret of one Boyce Ford.

We're only kidding. They are both very lucky people (We had to say that). We're sure they will be very happy and live a most prosperous and productive life (15 kids). We even predict an existence of pure bliss (Until she finds out his deep dark secret--he sleeps with his hair in curlers).

Congratulations from the Staff.

I R C MEMBERS ATTEND DEBATE AT DUKE U.

Asheville-Biltmore was represented by four students at the N. C. United Nations Model General Assembly held this year on February 22-25 at Duke University. Our delegates were Howard Williams, Mickey Schandler, Jim Rhinehart, and Ernest Miller.

Over 250 students from 140 colleges and universities discussed such problems as possible developments in the Congo, the Algerian crisis, and many other world problems.

Mr. Frederick H. Boland of Ireland, President of the UN General Assembly, spoke to the assembly on "The Change in the New World. Arthur Larson, director of the World Rule of Law Center in the Duke Law School spoke on the International Court of Justice. Mr. Larson is a former director of the U. S. Information Agency and onetime Undersecretary of Labor.

(Ed. Note: Sorry this article is so late but it was too good to miss.)