Write Your Own ARTICLE

Have you always wanted your name in the paper? If so The Ridgerunner gives you the chance. Just fill in the blanks.

_____, full time student at the University of _____, was on his/her way to class one morning, when all of a sudden a large, disgusting _____ came out from behind the _____ and tried to _____ him/her. Thinking fast, _____ grabbed a _____ and hit the large disgusting _____ right on the _____ Unable to take the pain, the large, disgusting _____ went to a well known bar and spent the rest of the day drinking _____ and thinking about the days when it was in Grammer School.

Now that you have some idea about newspaper writing, write your own real article and turn it into The Ridgerunner office by Tuesday, Jan. 30. The two with the most interesting and imaginative story lines, and that require the least amount of editing, will be printed in the next issue of the paper.
