

Caper — continued from page 1

poll observers to assure precinct officials handled the election fairly.

"We had problems with this particular precinct (11) for years. There was reason to believe they had been counting the votes before the polls closed, which is illegal," explained Wilson.

Griffin said the GOP Security Task Force hired Winfield and him as independent poll observers. The committee contracted to pay them $50 to keep check on five precincts, including Asheville Junior High.

According to Griffin, at approximately 6:10 p.m.

they saw a woman at Precinct 11 pull out a tally sheet, almost an hour and a half before the polls closed. Two precinct workers began calling out numbers as the woman wrote them down.

"John and I went in and standing approximately 10 feet from the polls confirmed what they were doing. John took two pictures. The people were stunned and began yelling at us," said Griffin.

Griffin and Winfield returned with their information to the Helms headquarters. They were told to return to the precinct with Keller to keep watch on further procedures at the precinct, which is predominately black.

Griffin said he informed them he was working for the GOP Security Task Force and attempted to hold down the tally sheets so precinct workers could not confiscate the information. There were at least three tally sheets according to Griffin.

Grover Mooneyham, chairman of the Buncombe County Board of Elections, requested that Lawrence Gilliam, Democratic precinct chairman, sign a warrant for the arrest of the men, according to court records.

Both Mooneyham and Gilliam refused to comment on the incident.

Griffin said police never read their rights, and the charge was not drawn up until almost two hours later.

"Those boys were arrested illegally. They had a perfect right to be at the polls, and to take pictures for proof of the wrongdoing," said Wilson.

Griffin said he hopes precinct officials will drop the charges.

"Everything we did was legitimate. I think it is an excellent idea to have poll observers. I would definitely do it again," said Griffin.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Meetings:

The Literature/Communications Club will meet in room 104 of the Carmichael Humanities building, Nov. 20, 12:15 p.m. Bring a bag lunch. Dessert and refreshments provided.

UNCA Club Officers Council meets each Wednesday from noon until 12:50 p.m. in the Meeting Room of Highsmith University Center. For further information contact Keith Ray in Highsmith University Center.

...

Contest: PSA is sponsoring a Big Brother Essay Contest—first prize $50—open to all students. Essays should be less than 10 pages, and should describe some aspect or overview of the present situation, then suggest solutions. For info call 667-5563.

New Books: UNCA's Chi Alpha chapter, through the generosity of the Billy Grahams Evangelistic Association, has donated eight books to Ramsey Library. Available for checkout are: The Holy Spirit, by Billy Graham; How to be Born Again, by Billy Graham; The Hiding Place, by Corie ten Boom; Joni, by Joni Eareckson; The Disciplines of Life, by Raymond Edmon; Blood and Honor, by Reinhold Kerston; Strengthening Your Grip, by Charles Swindoll; and Three Steps Forward, Two Steps Back, by Charles Swindoll.

Rape Awareness Program: The Asheville Police Dept., in conjunction with the L.I. is presenting a Rape Awareness Program, tonight, 7 p.m., Humanities Lecture Hall.

New Fraternity: Alpha Chi Rho, a national men's fraternity wants to establish a chapter on the UNCA campus. If interested, please contact Keith Ray of Judy Dillare in Highsmith University Center.

All Recognized Clubs: You now have a mailbox in the Student Development Office. Please have a member of your group check your box daily.

Tour Guides Needed: High school students from the region have been invited to visit UNCA, Nov. 17, to learn more about the university and possibility of admission. Student volunteers are needed to host small discussion groups and conduct campus tours from 3-4 p.m. Interested persons should contact Keith Ray or Judy Dillare in Highsmith University Center.

CLASSIFIEDS

L.i. Notice: Post-election party, spades splash. Friday night—don't get diseased. Bring Big-6 and note from home.

Mom and Dad

Chris: Hang in there; we've almost made it through another semester. Snuff

For Sale: Siberian Husky puppies (female). Five weeks old, blue eyes, nicely marked. No artificial flavors or preservatives. Call 254-4099, 5-9 p.m. weekdays; $25.

Keyboardist Needed: Christian rock band is looking for a keyboardist who is serious about his talent. Must have own equipment and be prepared to perform. All interested should call Tim Harris, 252-2355, or Phil Alexander, 253-5010. All applicants subject to audition and private interview.

For Sale: '75 VW Beetle, local, one owner, low miles. Has every option that was available; 4-speed, Firestone radials, Sanyo cassette with 200 watt equalizer and 4 JUC speakers. Can be seen at Autohaus Volkswagen, Asheville. For info call Scott, 255-9236.

For Sale: '70 Camaro Z28, blue with silver stripes, 4-speed, Holley 600 on high performance 350 engine with less than 2000 miles; road hugger radials, rally wheels. Ask for Greg, 894-3342 or Scott, 255-9236.

Doug Miller: Hang in there. May is coming! Love always, Screggles.

Fraternity — continued from page 4

takes to get one organized said Goode.

If the core group fails to make the 40 member limit, the club will remain.

"You have to have a club before you have a fraternity and I think we're calling the club the Asheville Business School," said Laughter.

"Our next meeting will be after Thanksgiving, because everyone is so tied up right now," said Goode.

"We want to attract people that are willing to work and are not joining just because it looks good on their resume," said Goode.

coupon

Snack Bar Special

16 oz. Milk Shake

Regular $1.10 This Week .75¢

With $2 Order And This Coupon

expires 11-21-84

No Meal Cards
UNCA Students Only

IMAGE
BEFORE
MY EYES

Directed by Josh Waletzky
Produced by Josh Waletzky and Susan Lazarus
Written by Jerome Badanes
Funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities
A YIVO Institute for Jewish Research Presentation/From Cinema 5

"FASCINATING, an unsettling time capsule. A nostalgic tribute to times of great significance and people who will not be seen again."
—Ernest Leogrande, New York Daily News

FIRST TIME
IN ASHEVILLE

TWO SHOWINGS

SATURDAY, NOV. 17 - 8 PM
SUNDAY, NOV. 18 - 1 PM

HUMANITIES
LECTURE HALL - UNC-A

Sponsored by the Jewish Community
Center and UNC-A's
Jewish Studies Center

Admission:
General public $2.00
*JCC Members & UNC-A
Students Free

* UNC-A Students must show ID; JCC
Members must show membership card.