OMICRON DELTA KAPPA SEEKS MEMBERS

UNCA's circle of Omicron Delta Kappa will be celebrating the organization's 75th anniversary this year as one of the nation's most respected honoraries. ODK is a junior/senior honorary stressing academic accomplishment in league with outstanding performance in government, athletics, and mass media as well as the creative and performing arts. ODK has established itself on nearly two hundred college campuses in the U.S., of which UNCA is privileged to be one. As part of its Fall recruiting program, ODK will conduct its "Tapping" ceremony December 4-8. At this time those fulfilling the requirements for membership will be "notified" by current ODK members who will then install them wherever they may be, whether in their dorm room, in class, or elsewhere on campus. Those interested in finding out more about ODK are invited to contact faculty adviser John Bernhardt at 251-6444.

THEATRE UNCA

Theatre UNCA will present two student-directed one-act plays in its Forum theatre series, Tuesday and Thursday, December 5 and 7, at 7:30 p.m. in the Carol Belk Theatre on the UNCA campus. George Bernard Shaw's "The Man of Destiny," to be presented on Tuesday, is a comedy about the young Napoleon who encounters a lady in an Italian inn who has stolen some dispatches intended for him. Stephen Black's "Horse Latitudes," to be presented on Thursday, is a touching drama of a mother and her young children waiting in a train station. Refreshments will be served prior to each production at 7 p.m. and the audience is invited to remain after the performance for a discussion with the cast and director. Admission is free.

American Music Week concert originally scheduled for Thursday, Nov. 9, has been re-scheduled for Tuesday, Dec. 5 at 8 p.m. in Lipinsky Auditorium. Admission will be $2.

FINANCIAL AID

SOROPTIMIST SCHOLARSHIP

Soroptimist International of Asheville is offering the local training awards program of $500 to a deserving woman, to present spring 1990. Recipient will have the opportunity to compete on the regional level for one of two additional awards of $1500. Candidates are preferably heads of households completing undergraduate programs or enrolled in vocational or technical training. Application deadline is Dec. 15, 1989 and are available in the financial aid office, Lipinsky Hall 221.

INTERNATIONAL PEACE SCHOLARSHIP

Believing that education is fundamental to world peace and understanding, members of the P.E.O. Sisterhood contribute funds to provide grants-in-aid for selected women from other countries for study in the United States and Canada. Applicant must be qualified for admission to full-time graduate study, working toward a graduate degree in the college or university she will attend; must submit a witnessed statement that upon completion of her degree program, she will return immediately to her own country to pursue her professional career. To request an application (between Sept. 15 and Dec. 31), write to: P.E.O. International Peace Scholarship fund, P.E.O. executive office, 3700 Grand Avenue, Des Moines, Iowa 50312. Applications must be received no later than Jan. 31, 1990.

1989 - 1990 DISTINGUISHED TEACHER AWARD

The University Teaching Council is asking for nominations for the 1989-1990 Distinguished Teacher Award. The award is presented to a full-time faculty member who has earned a reputation for outstanding teaching. All students and alumni are especially invited and encouraged to write letters of nomination specifically detailing why the instructor of their choice should be honored. Send letters of nomination to: John Bernhardt, Biology Dept., UNCA, One University Heights, Asheville, N.C. 28804-3299.

All announcements and classifieds must be turned in to The Blue Banner office at 208-A Carmichael Hall on Tuesdays at 6 p.m. Announcements and classifieds are free on a first come, first served basis. Call 251-6586 for further details.
