Although a Sept. 11. memorial highlighted the past week, a couple of students decided to make some news of their own.

To celebrate the beginning of the school year, the Community Directors and Resident Assistants of Overlook Hall threw a party, which they called the Overlook Backyard Bash. Complete with a Slip 'n Slide, cotton candy machine and snow cones, this sunset fiesta drew in a large crowd.

A brave soul, Richard Thompson, lost a bet and had to run around the jam-packed quad in a thong as a consequence. It caused quite a stir, seeing as a tour of the school was given at the same time.
