GIVE THANKS

It has been over three hundred years since our Forefathers met for what is now recognized, nationally, Thanksgiving Day. Many things have come to pass since that first Thanksgiving Day. We have been through wars and have always come out of them victorious. We have been through periods of discouraging economic conditions, and economic freedom has been won. We have conquered! Have we given thanks for all the glorious achievements that America has accomplished?

It seems that we Americans are living in such a fast age that we are slow to think and to really thank for the many things we have. We seem to take things in a matter-of-fact way without stopping to think where they come from. If ever a people had reason to be thankful, we Americans are the people. We have motor cars, telephones, radios, a wonderful educational system, and every luxury that anyone could ask for. We are living in an industrial and educational age where everyone has an equal chance for advancement. Our progress as a nation comes chiefly from our belief in the right of allowing every body to develop all of his ambitions. Let us think of the faith and character which our Forefathers bequeathed to us and we will then be in a mood for giving thanks to God for the many blessings we have enjoyed.

It Sounds To Me Like

A LIE

WEAVER DEFEATS RUTHERFORD FOR STATE TITLE

tackle for a run of 30 yards and their second touch down. Before the half was over Weaver had scored one touch down, by Vinson, but failed to make the extra point. The half ended with the score 13 to 6 for Rutherford.

At the opening of the second half a new Weaver team was seen in action. Rutherford could not gain on any of their plays. Weaver's line held beautifully. By the end of the third quarter Weaver had scored her tying touchdown. This was made by Jordan, on a pass from Robinson. The Golden Tornado was the complete master of the Ramblers this half. Another touch down was made, through the line, by Robinson. In this game, Teague made several pretty runs. As the final whistle blew Weaver was on Rutherford's one yard line.

The credit for this game must not go only to the players; some of the credit must also go to the body of students and the members of the faculty, who were on hand to show their support of the team. The victory definitely gave the State Junior College championship to Weaver for the second consecutive year. Coach Talman is the man behind this great team and to him is due the credit of its fine record so far. This game was Weaver's 16th straight win.

CLIOS WORKING HARD

world a number of preachers, lawyers, doctors, and many in other lines of work. The society has had the privilege of hearing a number of old Clios speak to them this year. Professor Reagan and Doctor Gill told them of the history of the society and Mr. Calfee who founded the society.

Last week the society tried Mr. Hugh Rogers for selling whiskey in the basement of Skinner Hall. Chief of Police Lee arrested Rogers and he was tried before Judge W. C. Stubbs. The jury declared Rogers not guilty in the face of all the evidence. Several witnesses swore they had bought liquor from him but he was acquitted. Rutledge and Pruett defended Mr. Rogers, and Peace and Walker prosecuted.

At a recent meeting the following officers were chosen for the second quarter: C. H. Peace, President; J. C. Rutledge, Vice-President; E. J. Tilly, Secretary; R. M. O'Neal, Chairman of Ways and Means Committee; L. D. Glover, Treasurer; Mr. Measamer, Chaplain; W. R. Newsome, Critic; H. McCracken, Censor; H. K. Pak, Martial; J. C. Rutledge and Hugh Rogers Representatives to Debate Council.

UPSHAW SPEAKS TO STUDENTS

world stands ready to welcome a winner. With our advancing nation depending upon you as the leaders of tomorrow you must be winners. Make use of every opportunity; fight for what you stand for with all that is in you—and, you will win. There are four cardinal qualifications for winners: first, a genuine love for the genuine; second, worthy ambition; third, contagious enthusiasm; fourth, faithfulness to God. Don't be counterfit men and women because you won't have a genuine love for that which is genuine. What does a man get if he is "sham?" Be sure the world will find you out.

"Students, where does one get, who does not have an ambition to do that which is great and good? Self determination and ambition are two great factors in winning. Don't be a slacker; don't be discouraged, never give up. Don't let any obstacle however great or small, stand between you and the realization of that which you stand for. Be determined that you will realize the ambition you desire, and ask God's help, and you will win. God will help you if you but help yourself. Be faithful, boys and girls, and ask God to be your guide in all that you do. Those of you who are not Christians, let not the sun go down this day until you have accepted Christ as your Savior. When you do this you will find your goal more nearly reached each day."

Mr. Upshaw then gave us a brief sketch of his life in which he told us of the struggle which he had had in order to win.

When a boy of 18 years of age on a Georgia farm Mr. Upshaw received an injury which rendered him a cripple for life. He was in bed seven years, but never gave up hope of attaining his ambition. Members of his family aided him while in bed so he carried on his "bit" by writing for newspapers and periodicals. Finally he was able to leave the bed and go around in a wheel chair. By the time he was thirty years of age he was able to put himself in college. Later, he was elected as Congressman from the State of Georgia, and served as such for eight years. Honorable Upshaw said, "If one Georgia boy can win by overcoming the greatest handicaps every boy in North Carolina can win, and remember this motto: 'I won't quit school until I am through.'"

"The work being done in the small church college," continued Mr. Upshaw, "is one of the greatest works in the world. Students can have more contact with each other and with the faculty than they can in the larger colleges. Every student in this little Christian College should write home to all your papers and tell what a very delightful place it is."

Honorable Upshaw closed his address with a story of Walter Johnson one the greatest baseball heroes, who won a baseball game by self determination to win, notwithstanding two previous tragedies. "Walter Johnson," said Mr. Upshaw, "was a home-loving God-loving man who thought not of self, but of others. He was a winner worth emulating."

PLAY TO BE GIVEN BY CLIOS AND EUTERPEANS

butler; Mary Grace Baldwin as Annie; the maid; Clara Rogers as Maggie, the cook; Harry McCracken as Foster, the gardener; Lowell Glover as Michael the chauffeur; Opal Goodman as Simpson the deputy sheriff; Walter Cuthrell as Jones, deputy sheriff.

The first scene takes place in the living room at Rockmere, Beach Haven, Mass.

The play is being directed by Miss Lucile Smith and everyone can expect to see a wonderful play as are all her plays.

WEAVER COLLEGE

Denominational—Junior—Co-educational—Accredited

Its training offers:

- The personal atmosphere of the small college.
- The thoroughness of the accredited college.
- The deep-seated inspiration of the denominational college.
- The symmetrical development of co-education.
- The preparation for leadership of the junior college.
- The low rates of the endowed college.
- The vocational guidance of various definite courses of study.
- The balanced self-government and supervision of dormitory life.

In short, an ideal gateway to the responsibilities of university, business, or home life.
