

Campbell Crax

Hobo: "Lady, I don't know where my next meal is coming from."
Maw Dew: "Well, this is no information bureau."

According to Prof. Garrett, lots of people commit suicide so that they can see their names in the paper.

Tom Walters told me that the greatest water power known to man is the woman's tears.

Doctor: "I'm sorry but I can't cure your husband's talking in his sleep."
Mrs. Washam: "Can't you give him something to make him talk more distinctly?"

Prof. Johnston: "What is a vacuum?"

Williams: "I can't explain it, but I have it in my head."

Lynch: "Some students went out last night on a hunting trip."

Willis: "Hunting for what?"

Lynch: "Rutherford College's Central Heating Plant."

Mother (to little son)—"Can you tell me the name of the worm whose labors have helped to produce my new, beautiful silk gown?"
Sonny—"Yes, papa!"

Prof. Johnston—"I just received a letter from my small son—the first he ever wrote."

Prof. Cathey—"How much did he ask you for?"

Stella—"Oh, there is still some dew on these beautiful flowers you brought me."

Goodson—(absently)—"Yes, I know, but I'll settle up for them on pay day."

Whitener—"Why didn't that man buy anything? What did he want to see?"

Clerk in dime store—"Me, tomorrow night."

The man that has a tongue, I say, is no man, if with his tongue he cannot win a woman.

a leading score throughout the game. The score at half-time was 27-12 in their favor. Rutherford fought desperately all the way through, but the Wingate players were hitting the basket from all angles of the court.

For Rutherford, Kelly was high scorer with 10 points and Ridenhour played a nice defensive game.

For Wingate, York with 18, Harrington with 17, and Coble with 12 points set the pace. Gaddy was awake on the defensive plays.

C. Scott Howland Presents Third Lyceum Here

Mr. Howland pointed out that with the modern devices, whaling is not real sport as it was in the old times. Today, whales are killed by powerful electricity without endangering the lives of the men on the ships.

The student body was indeed fortunate in having the opportunity of hearing a man who really knows the industry as Mr. Howland does, and we assure him that his program was greatly appreciated.

Ministerial Band Resumes Work With Spirit

Boyce withdrew his membership by leaving school to return to his home in Polkton, North Carolina.

Brothers Womble and Willis spent a recent week-end in Lenoir where the latter preached at the Oak Hill Baptist Church. Brother Sides exhorted January 29 at Warlick's Chapel after spending the week-end with Brother Lowman, a ministerial student from that vicinity. Brother Kirby, a student here and pastor of Westend Methodist Church, near Hickory, is being aided with his choir work by John Gibbs. Other boys have been working among the sick of the student body.

At the beginning of the third quarter the following officers were elected: President, J. Max Brandon, Jr.; Vice-President, G. E. S. Miller; Secretary, Billie Sides; and Treasurer, W. W. Hagar.
