Campus Elections

With the coming of campus elections next week, we should all make an honest endeavor to give this matter a great deal of thought. Electing leaders to guide us through the next college year is a serious proposition, and no one can deny that fact. Many, if not every one, of you will say, "I've heard this same speech ever since I have been voting for school officers in the grammar grades." True, all of us have heard it, but repetition makes a more vivid impression. Nevertheless, it remains that some few need a word of advice before casting their ballots on any question.

How often do we gripe about what this organization or that staff or some other club is doing? How often are we justified in these criticisms? Unless we think seriously and open-mindedly on these elections, we have no right to open our mouths in a word of destructive criticism. Of course, suggestions of a constructive nature will always be accepted by any democratic government, whether it be for the nation or for a junior college campus. Vote for the man or woman whom you honestly think best suited for the job; and then if he doesn't comply with what you thought he would do, it's your duty to tell him, in a polite and friendly way, of course, what you think he should include in his program of business.

Students, let us think the matter through completely and thoroughly. Then cast your ballots accordingly. We want to have more active and well-trained officers on this campus next year than any who have been here since the founding of Brevard college in 1934. That's a record to beat, but with our present material to select from, we can do it.

But, above all, get out and vote. It doesn't cost anything here!

Shame On You!!

By The Editor

Since the newly-organized Student-Faculty committee for the beautification of the Brevard campus asked for cooperation in achieving this aim, the following people have been observed either walking on the grass or otherwise not complying with the requests of this committee.

Jo Brumsey, Reid Prillaman, Harry Hill, Bill Ervin, Mrs. Scroggs, Mary Ellen Copeland, Lou Hamrick, Bob Watson, Harris Johnson, Jim Underwood, Glenn Davis, Bill Upchurch, Jack Prince, Robert Rankin, Alston Wilkes, Ray Cheek, John McIntyre, Mary Margaret Graybeal, John T. Jones, Ralph Kayler, Don Helms, Mr. Livengood (twice), John McKissick, Mike Haddock, Johnny Miles, "Bateye" Taylor, Bill Joyce, Bob Moore, Paul Robbins, Beverly Schaeede, Norman Huff, Lewis Swain, Charles Chapman, Charles Blackwelder, Leonard Ellis, Charlie Freeman, John McInnis, Poncho Hicks, Miss Buckner, Mahota Rankin, Ann Smith, and John Whitmire. P. S. Joe Adams threw a cigarette out of the Clarion window.

These people aren't the only ones who have inadvertently been desecrating the campus—there are many more. But to these and any others, we say SHAME ON YOU!!

PICK YOUR MAN

Below is a short personality sketch of the six candidates for the office of student body president. So study each nominee and don't let personal feelings influence your vote. May the best man win!

VIRGINIA RUTH PRICE

"Ginger" hails from Clifton and is majoring in home economics. She is a member of the Betty Lampe club and the Folk Dance club. After leaving here next year, she is planning to continue her schooling at Meredith college.

BOB MOORE

Coming to us from Statesville, Bob is that happy-go-lucky red-head in the Bookstore. He is a member of the Delphian literary society and is studying biology here. After Brevard, he is undecided.

J. T. NICHOLS

"Nick" is a native of Rocky Mount and is majoring in business administration here. He is a member of the Delphians and is planning to enter the University of North Carolina when he leaves here.

BETSY BOWMAN

Betsy is from Marion and is also a home economic major. She is a member of the home ec. club and was recently elected to a state office in home ec. circles. Besides being active in the Betty Lampe club, she is also a member of Phi Theta Kappa and Euterpeans. When she leaves here, she is going to enter Women's College.

MIKE HADDOCK

Mike, president of the Charlotte club, is naturally a dweller of that city and is noted here for his fine voice among other things. He is a veteran of the U. S. Navy and hasn't decided as yet where he's going after he finishes Brevard.

JIM HOLMES

Jim is a native of the Sunshine State, coming to us from St. Petersburg, Florida. He is a married vet and lives with his wife in their apartment in Ross Hall. He is president of the Freshman class and a member of both Sigma Pi Alpha and Phi Theta Kappa. He is a ministerial student and already has three churches.

What's Your Opinion?

By FRANCES SLOOP

What do you think could be done to improve the appearance of the buildings and grounds?

Jack Tucker: "A little cooperation on the part of the students, including myself, in keeping the grounds clean and keeping in the back of our minds that we wouldn't do it at home."

Fuller Chaffee: "I think more flowers on the campus would add to its beauty. We also need the cooperation of students in not breaking the flowers and shrubbery once they have been planted."

Bob Parlier: "We should be just as careful about keeping paper off the campus as keeping it off our lawn at home."

Lena Walling: "Everybody do his share of picking up the paper."

Jim Underwood: "The grounds, of course, would look better if paper, etc., were not strewn over them. It might be a good idea to put some trash cans in conspicuous places along the walks. The buildings need better janitor service."

Michael Haddock: "They ought to plant some grass where there isn't any and put more walks. It's better to walk on the grass rather than in the mud."

David Rogers: "Stay off the grass. Get people to sign a statement that they won't walk on it. Then, if they do, fine them."

Glenna Higgins: "I think they ought to make more walks so we won't be tempted to take short cuts across the grass. The wood-work on the outside of the buildings should be painted."

Betsy Bowman: "I think the students could cooperate in keeping the trash off the grounds and in using the walks instead of cutting across the grass."

Sidney Currin: "Do you throw paper on the ground at home?"

Margaret Jean George: "By cooperating with the Student-Faculty

Pine Whispers

Mary Duke seems to be lagging a little now. Where are all those boy friends, Duke?

Ralph Kayler and Jim White are having a little trouble with their girl friends. You don't suppose those nurses are mending sick hearts in Charlotte, do you?

The question is: Are they in love, or just sleepy? Bob Moore and Lib Latham have had that look in their eyes.

Notice: No firearms are to be used during election campaigns.

Betsy R. and Ann M. should flip a coin to see whose boy friend the sailor is.

Don't give up hope, Barbara. That's all; just don't give up hope.

Isis, who's that you have your eye on now? Ah, what a lucky rascal!

Just one word to Nick Nichols: "Brother, you're falling." You ain't by yourself, though; what say, Sarah?

Why doesn't Joe take an interest in girls on campus? Could it be Linwood likes the town variety better, or is there a girl back home?

Six Candidates

phonso Hicks were nominated for the office of business manager of the Clarion.

Elections will be held sometime next week, according to Claude Hicks, retiring president, and will be by secret ballot. If run-offs are necessary, they will be held each succeeding day until a winner is chosen for each office.

The number of candidates for the seven offices this year is extremely large in contrast to former years. Last year only 13 students were nominated for the same offices and only one run-off, that in the presidential race, was necessary.

Buildings and Grounds Committee, we can make Brevard's campus a truly beautiful campus."
