

The Clarion

Published By The
STUDENTS OF BREVARD COLLEGE
Brevard, North Carolina

Editor-in-Chief ----- Frances Bess Swaringen
Feature Editors ----- Evelyn Eller, Betty Lawrence,
Frank Roberts, Doreen Pearson, Bill Mewborn
Sports Editor ----- J. B. Thurmond
Sports Staff ----- Alston Wilkes, Jerry Crawford
Reporters ----- Margaret Ann DeBord,
Norma King, Eleanor Orr, Lib Latham,
Dale Brown.
Business Manager ----- Robert Henderson
Assistant Business Manager ----- Ray Cain
Business Staff ----- Betty Jo Parrish,
Dot Dellinger, Martha Bishop
Circulation Manager ----- Clara Jean Parrish
Circulation Staff ----- Mary Alice Allen, Mary Jo Brown
Proofreader ----- Betsy Dean
Faculty Adviser ----- Miss Mildred Gray

Welcome, Alumni

To all former students and graduates, the faculty and student body of Brevard college wish to extend a cordial welcome to the Homecoming events of the week end. We hope that many old friendships will be renewed, and that everyone will have a good time which he won't soon forget.

Homecoming is an annual event that brings former students back to the campus from far and near. Many of them come to see old friends and to renew memories of past college days. The theme in most of the conversations which we hear is "Remember when . . ."

For you oldtimers, a Homecoming program full of a great deal of entertainment has been planned. A reception, a ball game, and a dance will be the main events in a day of fond reminiscing. It is urged that all former students attend these social functions, for nowhere better than here will you have a chance of seeing again all your old classmates and friends. Of course, you will want to meet the new students and faculty members, too.

Remember that you have made Brevard college what it is. You have the credit for all she has done in the past, and you will be a part of all that she does in the years to come.

The staff of the Clarion would like to extend a special welcome to all visiting friends, as well as graduates and former students. We hope that you will have a pleasant and memorable Homecoming week end at your Alma Mater.

All Alumni Are Invited To Come To Big Dance

Immediately following the Brevard-Mars Hill football game tomorrow night, there will be a dance in the gym. This event is being sponsored by the Women's Athletic association of the Monogram club, and will climax the Homecoming day.

Ravon Smith and his dance band will furnish music that no one will want to miss. Since Halloween is right around the corner, appropriate colors and decorations will be used to make the gym more suitable to the season.

Don't stay away from the dance with the simple excuse that you don't know the steps—many of the returned alumni will be there and it can be a social time as well as a dancing time for all who attend.

Boys, give the girls a large thrill and ask them for dates to go to the game and to the dance afterwards. And girls, if you are not strong enough to drag a boy over to the gym, just come on anyway because there are always stags roaming around; you can early latch onto one of them. Besides, it is not every Saturday night that you get to stay out until midnight!

If everyone will cooperate, this

1949-50 Pertelote

(Continued From Page One)

will again handle both individual and group pictures. "We urge everyone to cooperate completely in getting their pictures taken this year," Editor Cook stated. A list giving names and times for individual shots will be posted on the bulletin board in the near future.

The complete staff for the year is as follows:

Literary staff: Bette Cook, editor-in-chief; Bob Dwiggin, associate editor; Allen Henley, senior editor; Betty Shepherd, freshman editor; Bernie Welch, athletics for men; Janie Kuykendall, athletics for women; Eddie Thomas, photography editor; Sarah Freeman, write-up editor; Ginger Price, write-up editor; Maxine Mann, typing editor; Doris Phillips, typing editor; Bettie Huff, typing editor; Barbara Henderson, organizations editor; and Howard Graham, feature editor.

Business staff: William Miller, business manager; Sarah Biggerstaff, assistant business manager; George Wheeler, advertising editor; and William Mainous, circulation editor.

dance can be Brevard's best Homecoming event. Let's make it one we will always remember.

Pine Whispers

Your snooping reporter is back on the job, so we will proceed without further ado.

Bob Hunt has found his match as a dancing partner in Helen Hayes. Quite a twirl they're making.

Tad is really staying true to Barbara. That is her name, isn't it, Tad?

We might say ditto in the cases of Jim Barker, Tommy Higgins and several others.

Mary Frances and Raymond make a hard looking couple.

Wonder if "Snookie" and Jane had a good time in Charlotte last week end?

Howard Graham's competition isn't one to give him serious trouble. Jean's only other attachment seems to be her books.

Who was that with Eloise the other night? Could it have been Bob H., better known as "Maggie"?

Just keep on trying, Max, my boy; maybe Dot will see it your way yet.

Sarah B., you looked happy on Sunday night. Was it because "the one" was up to see you?

We'll probably see as much of "Hoot" Gibson this semester as we did when he was a student last year. We think that Kat is a good enough reason, too.

"Marty" Gibbs certainly has company from Asheville often. It's not her best girl friend either.

Whew! That was some kind of time last week, wasn't it, Lizette?

We see Mac Corkle with different girls at different times, but it's really Frances M., isn't it, Mac?

It seems that Hall Smith has found an interest in West Hall. Emma, maybe?

Marion Cook and Ann Deas have recently been seen at the movies together. Are you two getting up a case?

Whom do you think we saw walking around the campus holding hands the other day—none other than Dottie Gay and Ray.

Anne Haley has a mad crush on a tall, brown-eyed boy with a crew cut whose name she does not disclose at this time.

Barbara and Dot, we saw you and two real good-looking fellows at the ball game the other night, but what has happened to them since then?

Don't y'all think that Bette and Jim make a darling couple? You never see them when they aren't laughing.

Enough dirt for this time, don't you think?

Many Activities

(Continued From Page One)

said yesterday. "They are an integral part of our alumni group, and I feel that they will enjoy meeting old friends and former classmates at this annual observance," Swink continued.

The college band, cheerleaders and students will lead a parade through town prior to the kick-off of the football game.

Co-Ed THEATRE

Sunday and Monday
October 30-31

"I Was A Male War Bride"

Tues. and Wed.
November 1-2

"Under Capricorn"

Thursday and Friday
November 3-4

"The House Across The Street"

ECUSTA PAPER CORPORATION

"World's Largest Manufacturer Of Cigarette Paper"

PISGAH FOREST, N. C.

