

MAY DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED ON MAY 2nd

English Coronation To Be May Pattern

Elaborate plans are being made for the celebration of May Day on the Brevard college campus. The festivities will be held on May 2, at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

The general theme of the pageant will be built around the English Coronation ceremony. Miss Annie Lou Allison will reign as the newly crowned queen and Miss Carolyn B. Freeman will serve as her Maid of Honor. There will be eight attendants, four from each class.

The procession promises to be quite colorful. A group representing the peers of England will precede the queen. They will be garbed in the official velvet robes. The attendants will be dressed in beautiful pastel dresses styled in keeping with the Coronation theme. Another element of the procession will be a review of the Queen's Honor Guard, resplendent in their red coats. A group of 16 college men will comprise this group.

The pageant of dances, presented for the enjoyment of the Queen, will represent the different countries of the British Empire. The Scottish Highland Fling, the English Sword Dance, dancing girls from Egypt, and a gay troupe of Irish Cloggers will form but half of the program. Other dances will include Canada, South Africa, Australia and the always traditional May Pole Dance.

Miss Louise Moseley, director of physical education for women, is in charge of the event. She will be assisted by Miss Carolyn B. Freeman, chairman of social activities of the Student Government association, who will serve as the student director.

Cast Is Chosen For A Three-Act Comedy

A comedy entitled "The Curious Savage" will be presented during the latter part of April by the Dramatics club of Brevard college. This play is given in three acts and is written by John Patrick.

"The Curious Savage" was first introduced in New York by the Theater Guild in October, 1950. Briefly, it concerns a home for the mentally unbalanced of better families, and the whole plot revolves around an old lady's attempt to prove to her children that the people found in the home are in reality better balanced than they.

Francis Price, who is directing the play has announced the following list of characters: Mrs. Savage, Nancy Carson; Fairy May, June Craft; Florence, Caroline Davis;

Pictured above are the girls who form the May Court of Brevard college: top line, Miss Carolyn Thrower, Miss Jane Edwards, Miss Frances Davidson, and Miss Jane Bishop, all sophomores. In the center are Miss Carolyn Freeman, Maid of Honor, and Miss Annie Lou Allison, May Queen. Bottom row, Miss Betty George, Miss Betty Starnes, Miss Gena Dickson and Miss Molly Primm.

High School Students Are Entertained Here

Brevard college was host on the 14th and 15th of March to ten girls from Harding high school in Charlotte. These girls were seniors and were under the direction of the W. A. A. during their stay.

The program for the week end included an afternoon of sports activities on the athletic field and in the college gymnasium. The afternoon meal on Saturday was eaten picnic style at Camp Straus.

A square dance was given in honor of the girls on Saturday night and all the students were invited to attend.

Miss Willie, Dot Wallace; Mrs. Paddy, Barbara Hansen; Hannibal, Jim Elliott; Jeff, Alec Houston; Dr. Emmett, Stan Hardin; Titus, Doug Dewing; Samuel, Jack Anderson; Lillie Belle, Faye Smith.

Spring Ushered In By Day Student Dance

A semi-formal spring dance was sponsored by the day students of Brevard college. This dance was held on March 28 as an official welcome to the spring season which had officially arrived several days earlier on the 21st of March.

Attendance at the dance was excellent and all of the student body who came enjoyed the beautiful spring decorations which were planned by the decoration committee of the day students: Harry Patterson, chairman; Caroline Davis, Betty George, Chester Kilpatrick, James Maney and Virginia Shipman.

Dance music was played through the auspices of a record player and the arrangement turned out very well. Everyone enjoyed the variety in music perhaps much more than they would have a live band.

—Turn To Page Three

Dean's List Posted For Mid-Semester

The dean's list for the mid-semester, containing 25 students, has been posted by the college recorder, Mrs. C. E. Roy. Seven of the students are from the freshman class, 16 are from the sophomore class and two are special students. To complete the vital statistics, there are 10 boys and 15 girls on the list. Anne Cowan appears on the list as a straight A student for the second time this year.

They are, listed in alphabetical order, as follows: Anna Lou Allison, Matilda Bell, Jane Bishop, Harold Black, June Craft, Carolyn Cousins, Anne Cowan, Caroline Davis, Bill Eller, Jane Edwards, Doris Ferguson, Mary Ann Holden, Kenneth Hoyle, Malcolm Johnson, Bill Kuykendall, Melvin McIntosh, Mary Frances Meachum, Wilson Morgan, Patsy Parrish, Paul Price.

—Turn to Page Three