New Faculty Will Make Brevard Tops

Mr. LeRoy Erickson, Jr., has been employed as director of public relations at Brevard college. Mr. Erickson replaces Mr. John Eversman, who has been part-time director for the past two years.

Mr. Erickson is a native of Erie, Pennsylvania. In 1952 he received his B. S. degree in advertising at Kent State University. He was promotional copywriter for General Electric company in Erie, Pennsylvania, in 1953. Last year he was business manager and director of religious education for the First Methodist church of Erie, Pennsylvania. In the summer of 1952 Mr. Erickson was station assistant at Station WITU-TV in Erie. His hobby is photography and painting.

Miss Sara Ellen Froneberger has been employed as a member of the business education department for next year. Miss Froneberger is a native of Cherryville, N. C. Last year she completed her requirements for her Bachelor of Arts degree at Lenoir-Rhyne college.

Mr. George King of Coler, Alabama, will join the math department at Brevard college this fall. Mr. King received his Bachelor of Science degree in mathematics from the University of Alabama. Mr. King has completed the major portion of his work for his Master's degree.

Miss Elizabeth Roller, of Nashville, Tennessee, will be director of physical education for women at Brevard college. Miss Roller received her Bachelor of Science degree in physical education in 1948. She completed the requirements for her Master's degree in recreation art at the New York university in 1948. In 1951 she was director of physical education at Florida Southern college, Lakeland, Florida. From 1951 to 1953 she was director of physical education at Belmont college, Nashville, Tennessee.

Mrs. Ella R. Gillenwater, of Raven, Virginia, has been appointed nurse and director of the student work program at Brevard college for next year, President Robert H. Stamey announces. Mrs. Gillenwater received her RN in 1930 at the School of Nursing of Mattie Williams hospital, Richmond, Virginia. She has been nurse at Emory and Henry college and at Ferrum junior college. For the year 1952-1953 she was Roanoke county public health nurse. 1953-1954 she was engaged in private duty in Roanoke, Virginia.

Mrs. Iona Berry, of Doddridge, Ark., will become dean of women. She holds the A. B. degree from Louisiana State university and the M. A. degree from Columbia university. She has also studied at the University of Chicago and has done further work on her Ph. D. degree at Columbia in psychology guidance, and student personnel administration. Mrs. Berry comes to Brevard with a valuable background of experience, serving as director of student welfare at New York Medical college and Nursing School and as dean of women at the University of Alabama for four years before becoming dean of women at Winthrop college in Rock Hill, S. C. She is a member of the American Association of University Women, the American Education Association, and the National Association of the Deans of Women.
