Golfers Look Good

and finished winner of the 1st flight in this same tournament in 1951. The year 1954 found William in the Far East wearing a uniform of khaki where he won 2nd place in the S. W. Command Tournament (Japan) at Nara City Club. He was then a member of the Camp Kobe Golf Team. After his discharge from the service he attended High Point College where he played as the 2nd and—or 3rd man. William this year will play with a handicap of 10 points.

Playing with a handicap of 10 also will be Steve Davis. Steve, who is president of the student body, started playing in 1953 and competed in the 3rd flight in 1953 and '54 at Lakewood City. He played on the Bur-Mill Golf Team in 1954 and '55 while journeying to Asheville last year to compete in the Junior College Tournament as a member of the Brevard College Team.

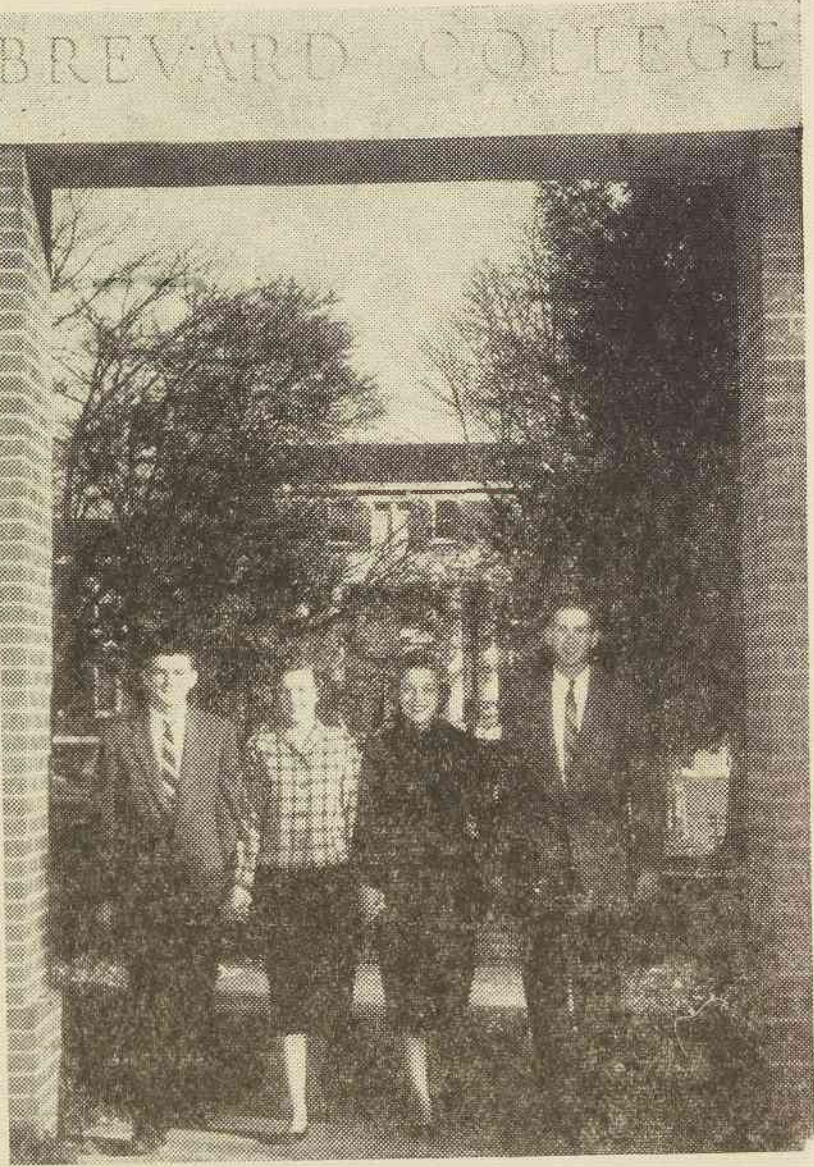

Vance Link, a hot-shot basketball player, is handicapped with 15 and will probably play as number 4 man on this year's golf team. Vance started playing in 1955 and was a member of last years golfing team here at the college. He has participated in one tournament, the Junior College Tourney at Asheville, N. C. in 1955.
