Recorder Releases Deans List And Honor Roll

Mrs. C. E. Roy, Recorder, has posted the Dean's List and Honor Roll for the Mid-Semester work. The Dean's List is composed of the persons who obtained a 2.5 average and above, and the Honor Roll includes those with a 2 to 2.5 average. The Dean's List includes:

Linda Boliek, Ole Borgen, Sharon Cline, Agnes Hamilton, Neil Howell, Rayford Ledford, Dianne Lineberger, Mildred Miller, Sylvia Parker, Sondra Whisenant, and Carolyn Wright.

Those on the Honor Roll are: Alicemarie Becham, Joe Britt, Janice Brown, Doris Brundage, Ronald Daniel, Bobby Davis, Myra —Turn to page Two

The National Council of Alpha Beta Gamma will meet at Brevard on December 7. The agenda begins with registration from 11:00 to 3:00. Following a tour of the campus, scientific movies will be shown in Dunham Hall. Immediately after the movies, a student from each college represented will give a scientific paper in a contest. This will be followed by the business meeting. After the initiation, the guests will attend a banquet in the cafeteria. Dr. Isadore Meschan will lecture to the members and guests in the Campus Center Auditorium at 8:00 p. m. Preceding the dance, which closes the meeting, is the ritual which will be held in the barn and attended by Alpha Beta Gamma members only.

The Brevard Chapter of Alpha Beta Gamma meets monthly with programs ranging from seeing movies to touring local industries. The group participated in the Science Show last spring and will do so again this spring. The officers are John Huggins, president; Linda Boliek, vice-president; Pat Mintz, secretary; and Craig Garren, treasurer.

The Alpha Beta Gamma is a national social and honorary fraternity for chemistry students in Junior colleges. The first chapter of Alpha Beta Gamma was organized by Dr. D. H. Pierce at Asheville - Biltmore College in March, 1952. The second chapter was organized at Brevard College in 1954. At present there are seven chapters in North Carolina and South Carolina, and plans are being made to add other chapters.

The name, Alpha Beta Gamma, comes from the three types of radiation in atomic energy. The key is —Turn to page Two

Students To Attend National Methodist Student Conference

Representing Brevard College at the National Methodist Student Conference to be held at the University of Kansas, Lawrence, Kansas, December 27 through January 1, are Linda Boliek and Marie Benge. This conference meets every four years and is attended by students from practically every college and university in the nation. Three thousand students are expected to attend. Our representatives will travel by chartered bus with other college students throughout North Carolina. They will leave Christmas night from Greensboro and return January 3. A highlight of the conference is to be a world premiere of an oratorio on John Wesley.

Veterans Club Sponsors Yule Project

The members of the Brevard College Veteran's Club are busy gathering and repairing toys and gifts for the Christmas Program, which they are giving for the underprivileged children of Brevard. The Chamber of Commerce is giving the club a list of the needy children in Brevard, and the club has made arrangements for two of their own members, who live here in town, to distribute these gifts during the Christmas holidays shortly before Christmas. Glee Club Begins Tour

The Glee Club of Brevard College begins its annual Christmas tour on Thursday, December 12th, and will present a total of six programs in the western and central portions of the state.

Professor Nelson F. Adams, head of the music department, is director of the group and Miss Elizabeth Whisenant, of Maiden, is accompanist.

The highlight of the program will be "The Christmas Story" by Schutz, although a number of other sacred and secular numbers will be presented.

On the afternoon of Thursday,

December 12, the forty-six member group will present two programs at Morganton High school, and in the evening they will perform at the Burke County Subdistrict MYF meeting at Hildebran. On Friday morning, they will sing at Shelby High School and at Hendersonville High School that afternoon. The Friday evening program will be given at St. Paul's Methodist Church in Asheville. The group will conclude their tour by presenting a program for the Sunday morning worship service at the Central Methodist Church in Mount Airy.

Brevard Student Is Honored By Poetry Association

The National Poetry Association has announced that they have accepted the poem, "Quiet Lay the Moon", by Donald E. Oglesby, of Brevard College, for publication in the Annual Anthology of College Poetry. This Anthology is a compilation of the finest poetry written by the college men and women of America, representing each section of the Country. The selections were made from thousands of poems submitted. Don deserves recognition for such outstanding work.
